Report Steel Firms Oppose $10 Cutback

See Wages Going Up In Strike

Fear Inflation If Costs Are Raised

WASHINGTON (AP)—The steel industry, it was reliably reported today, has rejected a suggestion that it cut steel prices $10 a ton in lieu of granting a wage increase in the current strike situation.

The suggestion was made by Rep. Chester A. Bowles (D-Conn) in a letter to President Eisenhower, who in turn had it referred directly to Chairman Roger Blough of the U.S. Steel Corp.

Blough is said to have turned down the idea on the ground that in settling the monthlong strike, the steel companies are going to have to give the strikers some sort of wage increase anyway.

So far the industry's position is that it cannot, in the public interest, increase steel labor costs and thus spur inflation. The striking United Steelworkers contend that this is an attempt to reverse traditional American economic policy that workers are entitled to regular sharing in profits.

Bowles told a reporter if the industry went along with his proposals, he felt sure the steelworkers union would have to abandon its wage increase demands in the public interest. Bowles was the government's World War II price administrator.

Other Facets Made Known

With steel negotiations continuing in a complete stalemate in New York, other facets of the situ-

1. The administration has no intention of invoking the Taft-Hartley law's national emergency provisions at least until Sept. 15 or Oct. 1. Officials are convinced there will be no sizable steel shortage until then.

2. Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, who is studying the strike situation as a fact-finder for Eisenhower, has conferred several times with top figures in the steel companies and striking union.

See U. S. Stepping In

3. The union is convinced that with no settlement likely the government soon will have to intervene, either by invoking Taft-Hartley other method.

4. U.S. Steel revealed it has sent out a statement to striking employes saying the union has exaggerated the effect of steel management proposals to change work rules. U.S. Steel's statement said that from 1940 through 1958 its worker employment costs have risen 288 per cent while shipments of steel products increased only 30 per cent.

5. In reply the union said the work rules couldn't be too much of a problem at U.S. Steel because there have been only 135 cases involving work rules in U.S. Steel grievance procedures since 1947. Out of the 135 cases, the union said, the company won all but 23 in arbitration. Also, the union said industry profit per man-hour rose from $1.47 in 1957 to $2.28 in 1959, or an increase of 67 per cent.

CONSUMED BY FLAMES—Fireman and streams of water are silhouetted against roaring flames that swept through 12 old frame houses in San Francisco. Most of the buildings were to have been demolished to make way for a redevelopment program in the city's Western Addition. Fire Lt. George M. Kelley said the blaze was a case of arson. Signing For Plan Expected

Urban Renewal Is Goal of Project

A contract for two years of expert city planning aimed toward a benefiting urban renewal project is expected to be signed tonight, Mayor Edwin F. Radel said today.

The planning consultant firm of Raymond and May Associates, Pleasantville, has been authorized to draft a master plan and to apply for an urban renewal project for the city.

Details of the contract were agreed upon at a meeting here last week, and Mayor Radel said he has invited Alderman James K. Ryan (D) 10th Ward, majority leader, and William A. Davis, (R) 11th Ward, minority council leader to attend the meeting tonight with a representative of Raymond and May Associates.

Four Years Pass

Final contract approval, Mayor Radel notes, will come after more than four years "have been spent by two administrations, both realizing the need and value of a comprehensive city plan."

It also comes at a time when trends at Washington indicate possible curtailment of public housing expenditures as compared to other years.

President Eisenhower's veto of a housing measure, more costly than one he favors, has been upheld through failure of a Senate vote to override it, and a compromise bill appears likely.

The vetoed bill contained provision for $900,000,000 in urban renewal or slum clearance grants over a two-year period. The President favors $600,000,000 for two years.

What effect a cut in federal expenditures for public housing would have on a local urban renewal project can be determined only after an application is made at completion of a master plan, or while planning is in progress.

It has been stated, however, that a smaller expenditure by the federal government, could mean heavier expenditures by states and municipalities.

DISTURBANCE AT LITTLE ROCK SCHOOL—A Little Rock policeman with a choke hold on an unidentified spectator pushes him toward a patrol wagon just after a riot broke out on grounds of the Central High School. Several persons were loaded into a patrol wagon. The violence came after a rally on the capital lawn where only a few minutes before Gov. Faubus had told some 1,000 segregationists to avoid trouble. Some of the segregationists began a march on Central High School after the rally broke up. (AP Wirephoto)

Will Look To Causes Of Rifts

Would Work on All Problems of Area

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — The United States today proposed setting up a special peace committee to study the Caribbean crisis.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told a plenary session of the Inter-American Foreign Ministers' Conference that this committee would report to the 11th conference in Quito next February.

It would look into the causes of the tension that has spread throughout the area since Fidel Castro's forces took over Cuba Jan. 1.

Would Help All States

"This committee might also be authorized to extend its cooperation to any of the states of that region in the solution of the problems that disturb their peaceful relations and which they are not able to resolve through direct negotiation," Herter said.

He called for a permanent organ of the Organization of American States such as the inter-American peace committee to consider problems of that sort that have plagued the Caribbean region before they reach the point of becoming threats to peace.

Oppose Castro Action

Seven Latin American governments at the conference already have declared they oppose interference by Castro and his Cuban revolutionaries in the affairs of other Caribbean nations.

Mexico's Manuel Tello was applauded when he warned the ministers to be "extraordinarily cautious" about changing the principle of nonintervention.

Tello emphasized that Mexico is a traditional supporter of nonintervention and he stressed the importance of the countries in the Western Hemisphere maintaining

Doubt Warming of Relations

New Yorkers Are Cool On Premier Coming

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — New Yorkers appear to be cool toward Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit next month. Many doubt it will warm Russian-American relations.

"But it can't do too much harm," seems to be a general attitude.

Some strongly oppose the trip. Others feel that both the Soviet leader and the United States are risking possible violence or demonstrations that could chill East-West cordiality.

Anxious to Show Him

However, New Yorkers are anxious to show Khrushchev the way we live — our farms and factories, churches and schools and our houses.

The Communist ruler will arrive Sept. 15 for a 10-day tour, by invitation of President Eisenhower.

An Associated Press statewide survey showed these reactions:

"I think these visits are going to accomplish everything," the president of a Plattsburgh concrete building block firm said, sounding an optimistic note.

Won't Trust Word

"You can't trust that guy's (Khurshchev's) word," said a Syracuse post office employe.

A Horseheads man wondered if the visit were another Russian trick. "Everything they do is for propaganda," he said.

"I think we're just as well off if he stayed right where he is," a Geneva dentist said.

Talk Better Than Bullets

"Talk is better than bullets," said an Auburn schoolteacher, a veteran of the Korean War.

A number feared for Khrushchev's personal safety.

"Something might happen while he is here and then a real war would start," said a Norwich housewife.

"I'm afraid he might get shot. He's hurt too many people now in

State Group Acts On Stamping Out Charity Rackets

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — An eight-member governor's committee was in operation today to re-examine a five-year-old state law designed to stamp out charity racketeering.

Appointment of the committee was announced Wednesday by Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson, acting for Gov. Rockefeller.

Archie Albright, an executive of the Stauffer Chemical Co. of New York City was named chairman.

The 1959 Legislature provided for appointment of a governor's committee to re-examine the law, which was enacted by the 1954 Legislature at the request of the then governor, Thomas E. Dewey.

Requires Registration

It requires charitable and fund-raising organizations to register with the State Social Welfare Department and file annual financial reports with the department.

Van Etten, Turck On Economy Slate

Frank "Bing" Van Etten of 76 Kiersted Avenue will be the Economy Party candidate for supervisor in the Second Ward next November, it was announced today by Bernie Singer, chairman of the party.

Singer said the party is also endorsing Joseph Turck, incumbent Democratic supervisor for the Fourth Ward.

Van Etten, a candidate two years ago for alderman of the Second Ward, is president of the Kingston American Little League, member of the executive board of the International Association of Approved Basketball Officials, member of Wiltwyck Fire Company, Old Dutch Church consistory, Masonic Lodge No. 10, YMCA, Moose Club and United Commercial Traveler.

He was one of Kingston's outstanding athletes at one time and served for several years as a member of the Kingston Police Department. Mr. and Mrs. Van Etten have two children.

Turck has been supervisor for six years, winning re-election two years ago by a large majority.

A former boxer, he has been very active in sports of the area. He and Mrs. Turck reside at 40 Hanratty street with their six children.

Singer said the party was proud to place such men on its ballot. "We seek the candidates and we seek only the best."

Will Call All States To Buyer Fraud Parley

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — New York's attorney general says his plan for a crackdown on consumer and securities frauds got a favorable reception in Washington and the U. S. attorney general will call a nationwide conference.

Louis J. Lefkowitz, New York attorney general, and his assistant, Charles W. Stickle, came here Wednesday to confer with Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers and officials of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Rogers told Lefkowitz he would call a conference later this year of law enforcement officials from every state to look into the problem of consumer and securities frauds.

Lefkowitz said the major purpose of such a meeting would be to work out details of his proposed central filing system of all persons arrested for civil frauds.

The system would be similar to the fingerprint file now kept by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Lefkowitz' system would not include fingerprinting, which is reserved for criminal cases.

It would contain name, address, method of operation and any identifying features of a person arrested for consumer fraud.

Lefkowitz said the number of consumer frauds in New York was mounting daily.

"It's appalling and it's frightening," he said. "The fellows who perpetrate fraud use the same type of pattern in all cases."

Lefkowitz said details to be worked out at the conference promised by Rogers included:

Who will keep the records; where will the money come from to set up the system; who will have access to the system.

"The attorney general was very interested," Lefkowitz said. He said Rogers agreed that the central filing system would be a step in the right direction.

At the SEC, Lefkowitz said, he conferred with the full commission and outlined a New York law, effective Oct. 1, requiring registration with the attorney general of all stock salesmen in the state.

Only stock brokers and dealers must register now.

One-Cent Gasoline Tax Voted to Keep Up Road Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee today voted a one-cent increase in the federal gasoline tax effective Sept. 1 to keep the super highway program going.

The extra levy would remain in effect for 22 months.

The committee voted also to divert to the highway fund some of the taxes now collected on automobiles and automobile parts.

The gas tax increase is less than the 1½ cents asked by President Eisenhower, but is estimated to be enough to maintain the rate of highway construction at close to its present level for the next three years.

The committee action broke a long deadlock over sources of revenue to keep construction moving on the 41,000-mile network.

Although the committee on previous occasions had repeatedly turned down further increases in the gasoline tax, it reversed itself today and voted 16-9 to boost the 3-cent motor fuel tax to 4 cents.

Three Towns Have Supply For Clinics

Three polio clinics for the inoculation of Salk vaccine in Ulster County have the vaccine on hand under refrigeration and will hold clinics as scheduled, The Freeman learned today.

The clinic for residents of the Town of Olive, sponsored by Olive Fire Department Inc., will be held Saturday from 8 a. m. to noon in Olive Bridge Firehouse.

Those who have taken the first shots and have cards on file at the clinic will be given the second shots. Others identified as Town of Olive residents may receive first shots.

The Town of Rosendale clinic will be held Friday at the fire hall, and Town of Marbletown clinic will be Thursday, Aug. 20 at the Town Building in Stone Ridge. Both are from 7 to 9 p. m.

Due to the shortage of vaccine at the present time, only the following will be admitted to the Rosendale and Marbletown clinics, a committee member announced.

1. Those who attended previous clinics and have cards on file.

2. Residents who did not previously attend, and who identify themselves as residents of the respective townships.

All vaccine is supplied through the courtesy of Ulster County Chapter of the National Polio Foundation. Clinics at Rosendale and Marbletown are sponsored by Rondout Valley Lions Club, Stephen E. Huben, polio clinic chairman.

Clinics scheduled for Kingston by the Kingston Uniformed Fire Fighters Association, and one in Saugerties sponsored by St. Mary's P-TA of Saugerties and the B'nai B'rith Women have been postponed until September when Salk vaccine supplies are expected to be available.

Clinics in the Towns of Ulster and Hurley are also planning for clinics in September.

Attorney to Contact Board

School Bus Decision Is Requested Soon

The Kingston Rural School Area Committee last night directed its legal adviser, Arthur Ewig, to call upon the Kingston Consolidated Board of Education for an immediate decisions on a request for revision of the new school bus transportation policy.

At a meeting held at the Town of Esopus Fire hall, the committee headed by Rogers Murphy, asked Attorney Ewig to request an immediate reply from the Board of Education to a committee request made July 16 for a meeting with the area committee leaders.

To Specify Time Limit

A committee spokesman said that Attorney Ewig is to specify to the board of education a time limit for a reply before making it necessary for the committee to make application for a hearing with the State Education Commissioner James E. Allen.

The chairman of the Kingston Rural School Area Committee complimented the area leaders for their conduct and manner of presentation of the request for a revision of the school bus transportation policy at the meeting with the consolidated board on July 16.

To Meet August 19

A meeting which will be open to the public to plan a final course of action, was set for August 19 at 8 p. m. at the Town of Esopus building at Port Ewen. The Kingston Rural Area committee attorney will be present.

On July 16, the area committee met for three hours with the Kingston Board of Education, during which petitions bearing 3,518 signatures asking for the revision of the new bus policy, were presented to school officials. The board took the request under consideration but

Hope for Child Who Was Poisoned By Spray Mixture

Hope for the recovery of Dawn Marie Bernel, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bernel, of 7 Market Place, Hudson, who is suffering from arsenic poisoning, was seen today when her name was removed from the critical list at St. Francis' Hospital, Poughkeepsie.

Highland State Trooper James Kaljean said the child was visiting her grandparents, who reside on the Nardone apple farm at Highland Wednesday, when she swallowed some spray mixture which contained poison. Trooper Kaljean said the girl also suffered from the effects of fumes from bags that contained a poisonous spray which were burned by two farm employes.

Kaljean stated the child and her father, Martin, were visiting the girl's grandparents and yesterday afternoon she was playing near the apple orchards with other children. Robert Ware and William Bridges, farm workers, were preparing spray for the apple trees.

The trooper said the men dumped the contents of bags that

Physicians Have Plenty Vaccine

Dr. Irving J. Josephson, president of the Ulster County Medical Society, told The Freeman today that he feels there is enough polio vaccine locally for 2,000 shots for individuals.

Dr. Josephson stated that while there is not enough vaccine for large clinics at the present time, it is his opinion that between drug stores and physicians there is enough for a week of two-week supply locally.

"There is no complete scarcity of vaccine for individuals who are due for the second and third shot or for the fourth booster shot for children," Dr. Josephson said as he advised individuals to contact their local physician if they are due for the vaccine shots.

Robert Hall Clothing Store to Open On Albany Avenue Ext. in September

A Robert Hall clothing store will be opened on Albany Avenue Extension near the Chambers School in September, it was announced today by Harold Rosner, president of Robert Hall Clothes.

The modern salesroom will be a one-floor, 8,400 square-foot structure of contemporary modern design. Streamlined throughout, the interior will be equipped with every modern convenience to facilitate family shopping in the easier, quicker "super-market" way. Clothing for men, women and children will be displayed on open racks, aranged by size to simplify semi self-service selection. Shopping hours will be from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Mondays through Saturdays.

A lot adjacent to the building will provide free parking space.

HAROLD ROSNER

The opening of the new Robert Hall salesroom will contribute approximately 40 new full time and part-time jobs in the area.

The Robert Hall Fall-of-1959 expansion program will begin with 12 new family clothing centers to be opened during the month of September. This will bring the total to well over 296 Robert Hall salesrooms serving the country from coast to coast.

The merchandising policies of the new Kingston clothing center will follow the original "low overhead" method of operation that has made Robert Hall famous throughout the nation for quality clothing at moderate prices.

"We have never deviated from our 'low overhead' system of merchandising since our inception in 1941," said President

Town of Esopus Enacts Ordinance on Dumping

An ordinance regulating operation and maintenance of dumps in the Town of Esopus was adopted unanimously by the Town Board Wednesday night following a public hearing on the proposal in the Town Hall at Port Ewen.

The ordinance which proposes to regulate operation and maintenance of dumps within the township by a system of permits to be issued by the Town Board, becomes effective in 10 days.

Action on the ordinance, according to Town Supervisor Roger W. Mabie, was motivated by a report at a Town Board meeting that a City of Kingston garbage collector was bidding for the city's garbage contract, and planned to dispose of the refuse and waste in the Town of Esopus.

The Town Board in regular session set Wednesday, Aug. 26 at 8 p. m. for a public hearing on the township's proposal to adopt the State Building Code.

A survey report which suggested driving test wells in Sleightsburgh and Port Ewen Hudson River waterfront areas was received from Leggette, Brashears and Graham, New York City geologists and hydrologists. The firm had been making a survey of the ground water potential of the Port Ewen Water District.

The board submitted the findings to Brinnier & Larios, Kingston consulting engineers, asking them to furnish a schedule of costs to carry out the proposal of test wells.

Supervisor Mabie reported that the committee working on the revision of the Port Ewen Water District code would meet Thursday, Aug. 20 at 8 p. m.

Justice of the Peace Allan Dargie was appointed chairman of the United Nations Day in the Town of Esopus to be held in conjunction with the national observance on October 24.

Cub Scout Pack 82 of Esopus was granted permission to close Parker Avenue in Esopus on Saturday evening, Aug. 29 for the purpose of conducting a block dance.

Mrs. Olive Auringer of Port Ewen was appointed Republican inspector of election in District No. 1, replacing Mrs. Burlin Winchell, who resigned.

Woodstock Library Fair Nets Handsome Profit of $7,171

The 32nd Annual Woodstock Library Fair, in its brief six hours of frenetic activity, drew the largest attendance in several years, and final figures revealed a handsome net profit of $7,171.52. Although much time, effort, work, volunteer help and free donations go into the making of this successful venture, there are necessary and unavoidable expenses. 1959 expenses accounted for $1,760 of the gross, and library officials and fair chairmen were more than pleased with the net income—a truly fantastic figure for so short a sales period.

As usual, the fair produced plenty of fun, frolic, excitement and bargains, as well as teeming crowds and parking problems. Music filled the air all afternoon as an all-star band of area musicians played on the greensward. Included in this aggregation were: Clementine Nessel, John Pike, Dick Burlingame, Bill Moore, Arnold Stanley and Gus Schrader. Occasionally, master of ceremonies Ernie Ward would lure fairgoers to another section of the grounds via the emcee's mike, and every hour on the hour, Great Expectations barkers Charlie Tiano, Paul Hamilton, Woody Broun and Abe Molyneaux announced a new list of prize winners in this popular drawing feature.

Wins $1,000 Bond

Luckiest of the fairgoers were Lee Dittus of Woodstock, who carried home the $1,000 U. S. Savings Bond; Mary Earley of Ohayo Mountain Road, winner of the stereophonic phonograph set; Hope Evans, whose award was an all-transistor radio; and Harry Wolven, male winner of a beautiful evening gown designed especially and originally for the fair.

An interesting sidelight to Dittus' winning of the bond is the fact that he had taken up residence in Woodstock only two days before the fair.

A highlight of the afternoon came when five Woodstock citizens were awarded medals by Gale Brownlee, professional model recently selected as "Miss Hudson-Champlain" by the State Commission on Historical Observances. Presentations were made aboard the replica of Henry Hudson's "Half Moon" to William Mellin, co-builder of the ship; John Pike, designer of the sailing vessel; Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson; Town Supervisor Joseph Fitzsimmons; and Alf Evers, town historian.

A Momentous Day

All in all, it was a momentous day for the Library, as money transferred from wallets across counters, and purchases found their way into thousands of shopping bags. Dollar bills literally flowed, balloons burst in profusion, hot dogs, watermelon, ice cream and soda pop were devoured in uncountable quantities, the New Paltz Drama Group drew a full house in the Collection Center building for their one-act play, and teen-agers whooped it up to the rousing finish in a late afternoon dance contest which saw Mildred and Vicky Williams and Ann Smith copping top prizes, and Jackie Majoros walking off with a prize.

With the final returns in, Fair chairmen, as well as the Great Expectations and all other committees extended their thanks to all of the people who contributed to the success of the Fair and to all of the cooperative workers who helped in its promotion.

Woodstock Association Has Questionnaire For Township

The Woodstock Association, as part of its fact finding program, will mail out a questionnaire to 2,650 registered voters of Woodstock Township Friday. The purpose is to obtain facts about our town and its population and to sound out opinion of the citizens regarding the future growth of the town.

The questionnaire covers such subjects as the present nature of the population, its sources of livelihood, the age groups of which is composed. Also included are matters of health, community welfare, roads, water supply and a seeking of opinions regarding future growth and the kind of growth the citizens would prefer.

The executive board of the Woodstock Association has spent many hours in the preparation of the questionnaire, using as a guide similar surveys conducted in other towns with similar problems of rapid expansion.

Seek Town Co-operation

The Woodstock Association is hoping that every voter who receives a questionnaire will fill it in and return it promptly. The greater number of responses, the more accurate the survey will be. The more accurate the survey, the greater will be its value to the community.

The results of the survey will be made public and will be available to all interested parties on request.

Among the sections of the survey are those dealing with personal data and statistics, rating of utility services in Woodstock township, other facilities; public attitude toward the future population makeup of Woodstock and a section dealing with the public's evaluation of "Woodstock's looks."

It is a comprehensive document, which if completed faithfully by the residents of the township, will give a true picture of public attitude and evaluation of life in the township of Woodstock.

Century And A Half Crafts Exhibit Is Fascinating Show

The Century And A Half of Woodstock Crafts exhibition, on view at the Guild Gallery until Aug. 20, gives Woodstock its first panoramic view of the work of the town's craftsmen over the years. And this view reveals a record of craftsmanship that is remarkable for variety and quality.

On display are hammer stones and arrowheads made by Woodstock's first craftsmen—the Indians. There is an interesting group of bluestone objects, ranging from a tombstone of 137 years ago, and a 75-year-old stone match box made by a Woodstock farmer, to the bluestone sundials and table tops of more recent craftsmen.

There are bottles, canes, a dipper and a wax flower dome of the lovely greenish glass made in Woodstock between 1809 and 1856. There is a chair made from a walnut tree that once stood beside the Tannery Brook; an old spice cabinet, cane bottom chairs made in a tiny mill along the Glasco Turnpike; a weathervane showing Gabriel blowing his horn, as well as a collection of old woodworking tools used in the Woodstock of many years ago.

Beautiful Quilt Work

Many quilts, both woven and patchwork, attest the fine workmanship and sense of design of Woodstock housewives. One example is dated 1824. Hinges, axes, and irons, and even a pair of scissors hammered out on the anvils of Woodstock blacksmiths, are an important part of the exhibition. An outstanding collection of the furniture textiles and pottery made in the early days of Byrdcliffe colony and of its Maverick offshoot make it plain that these two groups made a substantial contribution to American design.

Two of Woodstock's presses, the Maverick and the Retort are represented by good collections of their work.

The exhibition, impressively arranged by Rolph Scarlett, is attracting widespread attention, and many visitors have expressed the hope that a similar exhibition can become a permanent part of Woodstock.

The exhibit is part of Woodstock's observance of Hudson-Champlain celebration is jointly sponsored by the Woodstock committee, headed by Alf Evers as chairman, and the Woodstock Historical Society of which Evers is president.

Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen has graciously allowed use of the Kleinert Hall for the display.

Among the many contributors to the exhibition are Miss Florence Peper, Mrs. Carl Eric Lindin, Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Simpkins, Craig Vosburgh, Peter Whitehead, Mrs. Zulma Parker, Miss Anita Smith, Mrs. Hannah Cooper Vosburgh, Mrs. Rodney Lethbridge, Mrs. Isabel Thatcher, Mrs. Sonia Rice, Harry Siemsen, Arthur Peper, Mrs. Goodrich, Miss Bertha Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. John Striebel.

A fine collection of old tools used in working bluestone was lent by William and Lewis Hulsair of Sawkill.

Tickets Are Available For Moehle Testimonial

Plans are progressing for the giant outdoor testimonial to John H. Moehle, former supervising principal of the Onteora Central Schools District, on Sunday, Sept. 13, at the Funkest Hotel in Pine Hill.

Harry Allen of Pine Hill, chairman of the arrangements committee, said there has been a brisk early demand for tickets and a large attendance is expected.

Tickets may be purchased in the Woodstock area from Marion Umhey at the Ulster County Townsman office, Mrs. Bohumir Larys and Mrs. Marie Kleine, and from Arthur P. Knight at West Hurley.

GOP Rally Seen As Move Back to The Grass Roots

Tickets for the political rally to be sponsored by the Woodstock Republican Club, Sept. 19, at the Mink Hollow Ranch on Route 212, are now available through members of the club.

In making this announcement, Verner L. May, general chairman for the rally, outlined the reasons for this event, which is old in the American political scene, but new to the Woodstock community.

"The political rally has long been an effective way to present a party platform," said May. "In the days of Lincoln, the rally was a major way of informing voters. The inspiring record of Lincoln's wisdom and insight was surely built upon the confidence and knowledge that he obtained through his close contact with the people at political rallies.

"A group of Woodstock voters wishes to return this great tradition. Surely, there is a need to better inform voters in the township of Woodstock of the issues at hand. At times the surroundings of our political thought and governmental decision have been too grim, contentious, hastily gathered and sensational. You may have noticed that good will, devotion and sincerity of hard working office holders and candidates can be overshadowed by irresponsible individual attack or negated by lack of cooperation.

Seek More Participation

"This group of Woodstock voters looks at the oncoming elections and recognized a deeply felt need for a political enthusiasm that will result in more government participation by the voters, more mileage from the tax dollar, and above all — a clear, logical and well considered outlook on the major problems confronting our township.

May goes on to say: "Many of the problems of Woodstock are long range, of vast scope and have not even yet been defined, because we have at times floundered in detail. As a community, we have been exposed to wasting our energy and creativity upon matters of lesser importance that have had momentary emotional appeal. Perhaps this points out that we, as responsible voters, are not as well informed as we should be.

Reason for Rally

"As a positive step toward informing the community, the Republican Club of Woodstock proposes a rally for all residents who desire genuine progress. Republican Party candidates for the coming election are now thoughtfully preparing their program, which is their interpretation of your aspirations for the future of the township. They hope to make the major points of this program their platform and pledge of faith to you at the coming rally. Each point of this platform will be given perspective and priority.

"Our purpose in sponsoring the event is to inform you and cause a return to the grass roots of local government action. As a voter, you are urged to take advantage of this opportunity. Your children should be encouraged to attend this practical lesson in traditional American democracy. The rally is also planned to promote a feeling of township unity and accord. All of the traditions will be preserved with an excellent meal, a thumping band, recreation and amusements for the younger children.

"One of the more modern notes will be the awarding of a sparkling new Renault to some lucky person. If the sun decides not to shine (the odds are high in favor of a bright day) accommodations are available under cover, and the event will proceed at its original high spirited pace.

"The Republican Club solicits you, as a thoughtful voter, to attend this rally. We invite you to join us to better promote understanding, good fellowship and rededication to our community—in the steps of Lincoln," the statement concludes.

Gospel of St. Mark Is Basis for Sunday's Sermon by Rev. Sands

The Gospel of St. Mark, 7:31-37, forms the basis for the sermon which the Rev. G. Oliver Sands plans to preach in Christ Lutheran Church at 11 a. m. on the 12th Sunday after Trinity, Aug. 16.

Just as Jesus was able to help the deaf mute, so He is able to help us, says the Rev. Sands. First we must hear His message, then be ready to speak. Thus Christ releases personality. If you have no other church home or are a summer guest in the vicinity, you are cordially invited to this service.

The book of Lamentations is the background scripture for the Sunday School lesson at 9:45 a. m., with a theme of "God's Steadfast Love" in the adult class to which all parents and Bible students are welcome. Classes for all ages of boys and girls meet at the same hour. Let us study together.

Fellowship Meeting

At 5:30 p. m. the Fellowship Family meets on the church grounds for a covered dish supper. Following will be a brief devotional service in the church. Later, games are being planned, both quiet and active for the enjoyment of the whole family. Mrs. Evelyn Sieger and Mrs. G. Oliver Sands form the committee in charge. Come and get better acquainted with members and friends of Christ Lutheran Church.

Young Women's Guild meets Monday night at the parsonage.

Fire Company Reports Bazaar Is Big Success

A report submitted at the August meeting of Woodstock Fire Company No. 4 of Zena indicated the recent bazaar was a great success. Members of the company, meeting at the firehouse, expressed their thanks to all persons who helped make the affair a success.

Since the bazaar dance was so successful, it has been decided to hold another one on Saturday, Aug. 29, with Bill Harcourt again providing the music.

Arrangements have been made to hold a joint fire drill with Sawkill Fire Co. on Aug. 24 at 7 p. m. All members are urged to attend.

NEEDED: MORE DOCTORS

It is commonly supposed that medical care in the United States is both the best and the most readily available in any large nation. In general, this optimistic picture is close to the truth. A shadow has fallen across the picture, however—the fact that we are not producing enough doctors to keep pace with our population rise.

Dr. Howard A. Rusk, famous both as an authority on human rehabilitation and as medical editor of the New York Times, estimates that in order to have enough doctors to provide adequate treatment for our population by 1975 we will need an annual net increase of some 5,250 doctors. That figure compares with the present net increase of about 3,000 doctors per year.

One big reason why not enough doctors are being trained is that the cost of medical education has grown steadily and is still growing. Sen. Richard L. Neuberger, who has made himself an expert in this field, wrote recently that "medical educaton . . . is running an annual operating deficit of between $10 million and $20 million at the present time." This is despite the fact that tuition and other costs have risen until most families cannot see a medical student through school.

Senator Neuberger proposes a three-pronged attack on the problem. He wants Congress to appropriate 500 million dollars to build medical teaching and research institutions. He also wants federal scholarships for qualified men and women, and he proposes an incentive plan "to induce gifted medical students and other scientists to enter medical research." The Neuberger proposals may not be the answer, but they are worth thinking about. The longer we delay, the harder it is going to be to catch up with the growing need for more doctors.

Moscow reports Khrushchev's Scandanavian visit has been postponed until "sometime later." Many Scandanavians feel that any time later will be too soon.

GLOBAL WEATHER NET

Nationalism makes no sense in the field of meteorology. This was noted again recently by Lloyd V. Berkner, president of Associated Universities and one of the fathers of the International Geophysical Year. Because of the importance of the weather to all of us, the point is one well worth mulling over.

Meteorological observations made over even as large an expanse as the United States give the basis for but limited success in weather forecasting. What is needed, as the IGY demonstrated, is simultaneous worldwide observation.

The petroleum industry believes that even a 10 per cent improvement in weather prediction could save the industry 100 million dollars in the allocation of fuel supplies. It is apparent that greater accuracy in forecasts could also effect savings in various other fields, notably agriculture.

There would be other benefits, over the long run. Exact and complete information in any area of science can lead to understanding, and ultimately even to control. As Berkner says, the weather need be no exception.

But it all hinges upon the development of a worldwide system of weather observation. Here is one area in which cooperation would bring mutual benefits to all participating nations. There are obstacles to setting up a global network for weather observation and exchange of data, but they are not insurmountable.

A HEAP O' LIVIN'

The passing of Edgar A. Guest, probably America's most widely known and beloved minor poet, leaves a void in his field that is not likely to be filled.

Guest made no pretensions of artistic greatness for his verses—literally tens of thousands of them over a 50-year period. Yet there was a greatness about them, the greatness of the simple, the homely, the sentimental.

There is room—and need—for that kind of poetry in our lives, the kind Edgar A. Guest wrote so well.

'These Days'

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

A LITTLE TOO FAR

When a Congressional committee prepares a questionnaire, the object, of course, is to get information, but sometimes the questions are asked of the wrong persons, at the wrong time, and the information obtained has little value. It is like looking for a pin in a haystack.

About 12,000,000 Americans were in World War II. Of them a large percentage are alive and are trying to earn a living. One of them, for instance, is employed as a part-time janitor; some, like General Douglas MacArthur, are chairmen of boards and presidents of companies.

The House Subcommittee for Special Investigations, Committee on Armed Services, is trying to discover conflicts of interest. In a word, when a man is retired from the armed services, he should not accept a job about which he knows something, concerning which he possesses some expertness. Rather, according to the prevailing view, he should become a ribbon salesman. Of course, General Lucius Clay is manufacturing tin cans, which ought to please everybody. It must have cost the American taxpayer a few hundred thousand dollars to train him up to that exalted position.

So, let us look at the questionnaire. After asking for name, mailing adress, retired rank, etc., to the extent of 11 questions, it comes down to the business in hand:

"12. When after retirement were you employed, consulted or retained in or by private industry?

Month ..... Year.....

"13. By what company, organization or person are you now employed, retained or consulted in any capacity?

"14. By what companies, organizations or persons have you been employed, retained, consulted or associated in any capacity?"

The realistic issue is not conflict of interest but waste of trained intelligence. However, there is another side to this: the production of most of our munitions is done by private enterprise which requires trained intelligence to do the job. Private enterprise has been wise enough to find the able men in the armed services and to put them to work. I cite, for example, the case of General Leslie Groves, who headed the Manhattan Project and is now working for General Douglas MacArthur's company, the Sperry Rand Corporation.

If the government is so stupid as to rid itself of trained, experienced, even brilliant men, why should not private enterprise take them on? For instance, what did the great minds of the Navy think that Admiral Hyman Rickover would have done had they retired him as they planned to do until Congress intervened in anger at the outrage? Did the sitting admirals believe that he would twiddle his thumbs? Did they believe that he would sit on a rocker on the porch of an old men's home? Naturally, he would have sought and found some useful work.

Here are two questions that are decidedly none of the business of the investigating committee:

"15. What compensation or remuneration, direct or indirect, in money or anything of value, are you receiving or have you received for the service performed?"

"17. Give a precise and complete statement of the work performed, services rendered, and your business address, if different from that of the company."

Naturally, if a man holds a job, he gets paid. It must first be established that his job is a criminal one, against the law, in violation of a regulation, before any committee of Congress asks such a question as 15. Will the lawyers in Congress serve a client without compensation? I wonder how many of them would like to answer Question 15.

Regarding Question 18, few men in the category under discussion can honestly say that they have not discussed anything asked in that question, which is about whether they have discussed military matters with anyone. If they are, for instance, atomic scientists, they attend various scientific conventions where such subjects are on the agenda. They might talk to one another. These, of course, are non-commercial, innocent conversations. They might go to some current Big Shot and try to sell ideas or new developments or inventions. What could be more natural?

Finally we come to Question 23:

"23. Name Government officers, employes or representatives with whom you consult, confer, or discuss any matters in relation to the performance of any of the above-mentioned contracts, giving location of Defense Department personnel."

What can one answer to that? Perhaps the smartest would be "Yes, my West Point class had a reunion last June."

Child's Emotional Qualities Need Kind, Firm Handling

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

I suspect that small children are more susceptible to developing nervous habits than human beings at any other age. When they do, the situation is often likely to be made worse by the fussing of the parents at the children.

Here are some examples: "My son is two years old and loves to be outside. When I put him there by himself, he cries and shouts, but stops the minute I go out. Will it hurt him to leave him in the big yard and let him cry it out?"

In another letter, a mother writes that she has a little 3½-year-old girl who has had spells of holding her breath since she was a year old. It always happens when she falls or gets bumped. She has these spells on the average of once every two weeks.

A similar letter comes from the mother of a 5-year-old girl. Until the age of three, she writes, the girl was easy to deal with, but now she finds the child is terribly frustrated, sucks her thumb and has a problem with food. The girl is also aggressive and sassy, her mother says.

Probably all mothers and fathers will recognize from these typical letters, experiences and worries they have had with their own children. With the possible exception of the little girl who holds her breath, and should be examined for some physical cause, the probabilities are that these are all cases of emotional strain in children of a perfectly normal type. The parents would be wise to think of possible causes, such as jealousy of another child, or lack of playmates as responsible for this kind of behavior.

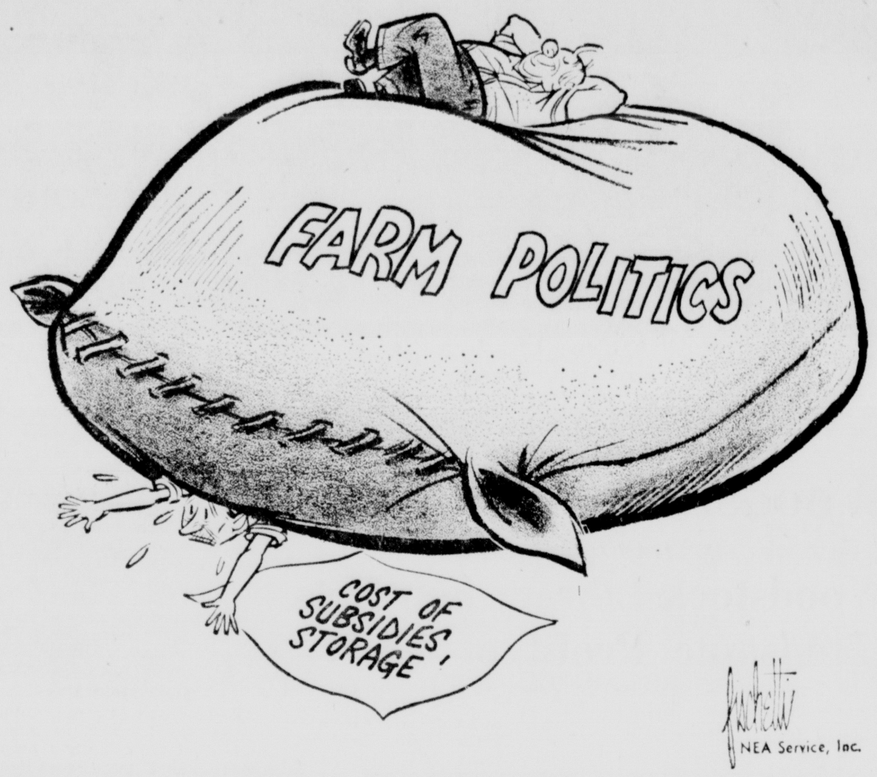

They can also study their own attitude toward their children and make sure that the youngsters are confident of the parent's affection, consistency of discipline, love, and a general lack of quarreling around the home.

If the parents can provide a happy, affectionate environment and not pay too much attention to these emotional qualities of their young children, and deal with them firmly but kindly, there is a good chance that they will be outgrown.

I also have a question about ruptures in small babies and what causes them. These are inborn weaknesses of the muscles and other tissues which allow some of the contents of the abdomen to protrude through the weakened spot.

Whether surgical treatment of such a rupture should be undertaken, and the age at which it should be performed, depends on the location, size and some other factors which have to be evaluated by the surgeon.

The Other Side of the Mattress

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Both fireworks and explosions are expected at the fifth meeting of Consultation of Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the American States—to give it the full name treatment. It makes a delayed opening in Santiago, Chile, Aug. 12.

The United States, hoping vainly for a short and sweet session of not over five days, will send a delegation of about 10 officials. It will be headed by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, just back from Geneva, and U. S. Ambassador to the Organization of American States, John C. Dreier. Other delegations, feeling that the solution of their worries will not be peaceful or simple, are counting on a conference of 10 days or two weeks, minimum.

Latin American Communists have announced that they will hold a meeting in Santiago at the same time. They are counted on to stir up whatever trouble they can.

Chilean authorities say they can handle it. Though the present Chilean government of President Jorge Alessandri is conservative, he has a strong Communist party to deal with.

WHEN IT WAS FIRST proposed to hold the Foreign Ministers meeting in the Chilean Congress, Cuban Communists protested. The meeting was moved to a hotel. When the Cubans announced they might not attend the conference, Communists said they would demonstrate in Santiago in Cuba's cause.

The main controversy inside the Foreign Ministers Conference will be between Dominican Republic's Foreign Minister Porfirio Herrera Baez and Venezuela's Foreign Minister Ignacio Luis Arcayo.

Dominican Republic, under President Hector B. Trujillo, lays claim to being grand champion of anticommunism. His government has reserved the right to speak on the Communist menace at Santiago, though that isn't on the agenda.

Trujillo has the strongest Latin American army—over 25,000 men, well equipped and trained. General Trujillo claims he needs this force for self-defense against Communist enemies who seek to overthrow his government.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC press and radio have for years carried on a vicious day and night campaign against President Romulo Betancourt of Venezuela. This year the attack has also centered on Cuba's Premier Fidel Castro.

But to practically all Latin American countries, General Trujillo is a dictator who has suppressed democracy in his own country and seeks to destroy it in the Caribbean.

Trujillo is accused of buying arms all over the world and hiring mercenaries to build up his army, bringing them into his country as immigrants.

In blunt language, Trujillo's enemies are out to get him — overthrow his government, kick him out of the Organization of American States, or something.

The question is, what and how, without violating the Havana Convention of 1928, which bans the organization of expeditions in one state to attack another?

THERE WAS A GRAND preliminary row in Washington's Pan American Union building July 30, during the five-hour meeting of the O.A.S. Council to adopt an agenda for the Santiago foreign ministers. Very little about this was carried in U. S. news media, but it was big stuff in Latin America.

The two items finally adopted unanimously cover, in brief: (1) International tension in the Caribbean area in its general and several aspects. (2) Effective exercise of representative democracy and respect for human rights.

That diplomatic language covers a multitude of sins.

A third item was offered by Cuba to cover: "economic underdevelopment and political stability." This was turned down by a vote of eight in favor, four opposed and nine abstaining after a long red-hot argument.

Most of the Council members agreed that the Cuban item could be brought up under item 1. But Cuba refused to accept this, and walked out of the meeting, reserving the right to attend or stay away from the Santiago conference. If the Cubans attend, they are expected to join Venezuela and others in opposing the Dominican Republic.

Risk of War Evaluated In Visit by Khrushchev

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 — What Nikita Khrushchev sees and learns on his forthcoming visit to the United States could have dangerous consequences. It could conceivably be the forerunner of war, just as the "summit" meeting between Chamberlain and Hitler at Munich in September 1938 was followed a year later by the outbreak of World War II.

Everything depends now, as it did then, on the reaction of the peoples of the democracies. The question really has passed, for the moment, out of the hands of the government at Washington.

Could Draw Conclusion

If Khrushchev comes to the conclusion after his visit that the American people are so steeped in luxuries and comforts and so engrossed in material pursuits that they will be ready to make peace at any price, the temptation for the Moscow dictator will be to take chances just as Hitler did, and war—at first "limited" and then general—becomes a serious possibility.

Conversely, if the American people show that they have courage and are willing to make sacrifices for ideals, even to the point of losing some day many of their comforts and their luxuries—as they have done three times in the wars of the last half-century — then maybe the Moscow dictator will not miscalculate or take chances, and a world war will be avoided.

Emphasis on Goods

Unfortunately, the emphasis, since the trip was first announced, has been on the supposed importance of showing Khrushchev the many fine homes of our workers, or the number of automobiles in the factory parking lots, or the other material things that a rich country can boast. Little has been said about how the American people should express their idealism or their sense of horror over the murders and tragedies for which the tyrannical government of the Soviet Union has been responsible in its iron-handed rule over hundreds of millions of people.

Should the American people remain silent, or should they become articulate? The question is being debated quietly in the corridors of Congress. This is a nation where free speech is enjoyed on international as well as national questions. Members of Congress are asking each other frankly what ought to be done by the national legislature itself. Some have thought it would be best to adjourn, so as to avoid the necessity of welcoming Khrushchev at any session of Congress. But, upon reflection, others think this would be failing to take advantage of a big opportunity to debate before the world the very issues that Khrushchev himself has again and again discussed in public.

Khrushchev Before Congress?

If a Khrushchev speech to a joint session of both Houses of Congress were arranged for, it could mean that President Eisenhower would be given an opportunity to address the Soviet Parliament when he goes to Moscow later this autumn. This would help to get the American point of view across to the Soviets as never before.

If the Soviet Premier is invited to make an address to Congress, time, of course, should be set aside also for those Senators and Representatives who wish to make clear to the American people and to the peoples of all the world that there has been no backing away by the United States from the positions taken on the issues raised in recent years by Communist imperialism.

The whole story of what the Soviet Union has done to upset world peace since 1945 is well documented, but it is not well enough known. At least two days immediately following Khrushchev's visit to Congress might well be given over entirely in each House to speeches publicizing the American point of view toward the "cold war" which was started by the Moscow government.

Fate of Captive Nations

Many members of Congress would like the opportunity to tell what has happened to the "captive nations" and also to describe the many instances of subversion and infiltration which have been financed by the Moscow regime, not only inside Europe, Africa and Asia, but also in the many countries of North and South America. Countering this form of aggression has cost the free world billions of dollars, apart from defense expenses. Indeed, no democracy in the world will be safe as long as the autocratic government in Moscow continues its worldwide tactics of attempted conquest.

If the reception accorded the Soviet Premier by the American people—granted that it must be courteous as a seeming acceptance of the Moscow dictator himself in disregard of his crimes and the wrongs inflicted by his government, then it may be that Khrushchev on his return to Moscow will say to his colleagues in the Kremlin something like this:

"Those Americans won't fight—they don't want to lose their comforts. I can force them to give concession after concession. Since they are already frightened of our missiles and nuclear bombs, I can threaten them some more and still get my way without a war. That's how communism can win its biggest victories in the world."

But if the Kremlin leader learns, on the other hand, that the rights and liberties of human beings mean more to the American people than their own material possessions, he will begin to understand what the all-inclusive words of the Declaration of Independence have meant to the cause of freedom. For to support that cause our forefathers said: "We mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

MOSCOW—As I said in my last previous pastoral there are neither dogs, drugstores, beaneries nor soda fountains in Moscow. Neither are there saloons, banks or filling stations. Now, to be sure, a prescription by a state doctor, sharing the basic status of a waiter, a hackman or a cop, might be put together in the fulness of time, but I am longing for the sight of a general store in which razor blades and eye lotion, dentifrice and candy bars, aspirin, band aid, raincoats, barber-water, percolators and beach-balls are for sale and from two to five phones are spotted in the crannies.

I doubt that there is on ounce of salted peanuts in the Soviet Empire and, for all the promises of pie in the sky and five-year-plans going back to our Mr. Hoover's administration, the Soviet people still have no automobiles of their own. The highways advertised in the tourist folders are for buses and trucks and for foreigners come with their cars to drop some outside money and soak up the beauties of a Black Sea coast which was here in ages past.

The American banking system has been proliferating if I may use a word so far above my humble station like poison ivy on a Connecticut wall, and I hope to somewhat better purpose with branches on dozens of corners far out into the suburbs even of towns the size of Tucson. They are avid for the wage earner's little service charge on checks and they entice him with a lazy susan convenience so he can deposit his little money without getting out of his car. This has struck me as an effete proposition. I merely observe that the Russians have no bank accounts and therefore no need of banks. They are invited in a dull way to save some money but the same government offers a bleak cradle-to-grave arrangement which is the same for the improvident as for the one who squirrels away some kopeks (pronounced kop—as in coppecks, by the way).

To face the truth, the same is true in our country where the heirs of a man who saves by self-denial pay taxes on his estate that is beside the point. There are no banks in the Russian scene and this startling negative difference shows how low-down poor they are except in the abundant love of big brother.

There are no billboards except for state announcements which at this writing include a star-spangled, red-striped ad for the American exposition and neither are there newsstands except the one for propaganda in the ghastly Ukraine Hotel which the government built for tourists and other transient foreigners. The papers, Pravda and Izvestia, are tacked on bulletin boards on the streets. I have yet to see anyone stopping to read one. The foreigners in our hotel include just now a number of Red Chinese and North Koreans, perhaps with the blood of Americans on their hands. The North Koreans wear a peculiar, tidy uniform of gray with a coat buttoned up to the throat and a turn-down collar like Chiang Kai-Shek's. They have remarkably bright faces. The Chinese are big ugly fellows like Mongols and generally sloppy and beefy. The Chinks wear any dam thing, mostly khaki and they seem not too sharp.

In times past I have berated American cooks from the roadside grease-joints of Maine famous for tooth-resistant clams, down through the disheartening deadfalls of the fried chicken belt in both Carolinas and Georgia, then over into Texas where Dallas, Fort Worth and El Paso compete with great spirit to maintain the highest standard of vandalism against good food in the civilized world. All credit to all them for unrelenting dedication to their indecent ideal but they are outclassed by the disgusting achievements of the chefs de cuisine in the tawdry grandeur of The Prague, the meanest farce in the de luxe circuit of the Soviet Capital. There could not be, this side of the Chinese famines that Pearl Buck wrote about, worse food and worse treatment of terrible food, whether in the New York Women's House of Detention, Chez Tito in Cetinje or Joe The Leper's in Addis Ababa.

I have messed with a dozen Americans in the Hotel Ukraine, pronounced Oo-krine-ya, which was built with consummate but highly encouraging stupidity and incompetence by the Soviet government in 1954 and is coming apart already.

I have tried also the Grand Hotel Palace. My poor superlatives, awful, vile, foul and horrible are flattery and I must deny myself words which suggest offensive odors and nausea. The chicken soup is warmish water, slightly salted and peppered, but the noodles are barely moistened and the chicken itself bespeaks great technical progress since Harry Hopkins dumped a synthetic rubber plant ashore near Archangel with our compliments and mailed them a book of instructions.

The chicken is fork-repellent and after the first two days the common practice is to settle down to caviar, eggs, bread, butter and jam. The gnarled hunks of blackened muscle called bisteak rarely yield to knife or tooth. The chicken cutlet is a grenade of hard pastry with a treasure of tasteless but disintegrating white meat inside, soaked in butter. There was cheese one day the color of laundry soap but not as toothsome and the bacon with bacon and eggs is tiny minced particles of some pork product.

The Russians undoubtedly fare worse than we do because, after all, caviar and butter are luxuries. Even the borscht is awful, because for all Khrushchev's noisy boasting, Russia can't raise enough to feed herself. These people never learned to cook and don't know what they are missing. If the tourist hotels under government management and subsidy can't manage even an edible meal, to say nothing of taste and quality, we may relax our apprehensions of great technical efficiency in this quarter.

Sell Profession, Editors Are Told

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A journalism school director advised editors today to step up their competition with engineering, science and medicine for the brightest young minds.

There's an acute shortage of qualified people in newspaper editorial jobs, George J. Kienzle, head of the School of Journalism at Ohio State University reported at the convention of the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn.

"The rising star of science stole the glamor show from journalism, the traditional idol of so many of our young people," Kienzel's report said.

He urged editors to sell the profession "to the community and to the college and high school students who will be the reporters and editors of tomorrow."

Kienzle's report was part of a manpower study by the APME committee headed by I. William Hill, of the Washington, (D.C.) Star.

Better Sports Reporting

In another discussion, a baseball executive and an editor agreed the public is getting better sports reporting than ever before.

But the baseball man, George R. (Birdie) Tebbetts of the Milwaukee Braves, suggested newspapers sometimes go too far in publishing details of athletes' private lives.

Youngsters who revere athletes may get an erroneous impression, Tebbetts said, if they read that their heroes have human failings.

Jack Murphy, sports editor of the San Diego, (Calif.) Union, agreed with Tebbetts on the quality of sports reporting for the public.

Their comments were prepared for an APME committee headed by William B. Dickinson of the Philadelphia Bulletin.

Lightning Kills Two New Mexico Guardsmen

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Lightning ripped through a field headquarters in the desert north of here Wednesday, killing two New Mexico National Guardsmen.

Twelve others were injured.

Names of the men killed were withheld by the Guard pending notification of next of kin.

Col. Glen Lovette, a New Mexico Guard spokesman, said the injured suffered principally from shock. He said all of them probably will be released from William Beaumont Army Hospital in El Paso today.

Not on the Menu

DES MOINES (AP)—It was communion Sunday at a Des Moines church, and 6-year-old Stephen Hoff was impressed by the communion table. He asked several questions, and finally inquired loudly, "When are they going to serve the potluck?"

Teacher Is Circus Clown in Summer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Schoolteacher Tom Kelly thinks a teacher should do something really different in the summer. So he's doing it—as a circus clown.

Kelly, 28 has been teaching the fifth grade at Lowville Academy in Lowville, N.Y., for six years.

In the summer he hits the road with Cristiani Bros. Circus, which opens here Aug. 20.

It was in 1956 that he got the idea that a circus ring would be a good contrast to a classroom.

He wrote of his ambition to Ernesto Cristiani at Sarasota, Fla., and was invited to join up.

Showdown Nears On Democratic Convention Site

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A squabble that could cost Los Angeles the 1960 Democratic National Convention neared a showdown today.

Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler warned that unless a convention ticket dispute is settled by Monday he will start looking for another site.

Kenneth Hahn, Los Angeles County supervisor with whom Butler talked by telephone Wednesday, said he expects a compromise will be worked out by Saturday.

But, Hahn said, if that fails a new group is ready to finance the convention.

"I learned from a very high Democratic official that another group is ready to put up the $350,000 to underwrite the convention," Hahn said. "It is willing to accept the 1,500 tickets offered by Butler."

He would not identify the Democratic official for the group.

The ruckus started when oilman Edwin Pauley, cochairman of the host committee, demanded 5,000 daily tickets to help pay off the $350,000 guarantee. He later agreed to a compromise of 3,113 tickets suggested by Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson.

Butler insisted that many tickets would, not be available after necessary demands were met.

He said in Washington he would not budge from the 1,500-ticket allotment.

Arrives in Peiping

TOKYO (AP) — Peiping radio said Ho Chi minh, president of North Viet Nam, arrived in Peiping by special plane today after visiting northwest China. Ho is en route to Hanoi after what was officially described as a month's vacation in Russia.

Red China Fires New Charges

TOKYO (AP)—The Communists fired off new charges today that the United States is attempting to convert Laos into a military base threatening Red China and North Viet Nam.

Peiping declared the situation in the Indochina kingdom, where royal troops have been clashing with Red rebels, "has worsened and become more grave."

While the war of words ground on, Laos' frontier with her Red neighbors apparently was quiet. Reports from Vientiane, the Laotian capital, said there had been no significant skirmishes in the mountainous jungles of northern Laos in a week or 10 days.

The U.S. State Department brushed off Red China's charge that the Americans are fomenting trouble in Laos. A spokesman said this is the same propaganda line the Communists have been peddling for weeks. There are 80 American military advisers in Laos, but the spokesman denied the United States has any bases or troops in the little Buddhist kingdom. U.S. military and security aid to Laos for the 1959 fiscal year totaled $22,900,000.

Ike Has Good Pilot

BONN, Germany (AP)—President Eisenhower's pilot proved today you can land a giant Boeing 707 jet at the Bonn Airport.

A crowd of 500 saw Col. William H. Draper Jr., the President's pilot, bring the big jet in for a perfect landing. Aboard was James Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, who came here to help prepare for the President's visit Aug. 27.

The aircraft was the first Boeing 707 to land in Bonn.

Tease, Tickle, He Advises

LONDON (AP) — The Rev. Hugh Herbert recommended today that married couples vow "to tease and to tickle—until death do us part."

"Marriage should be fun. Far too many marriages are wrecked on the rocks of monotony," said the rector of St. John's Anglican Church in Surrey, in an article for his parish magazine.

Mouth-to-Mouth Resuscitation Method Explained

Mouth-to-Mouth technique of artificial respiration for adults and children officially adopted recently by the American Red Cross was explained today by Harold A. Sanford, chairman of safety services of the Ulster County chapter.

The organization will begin immediately to teach the method in its first aid and water safety courses throughout the nation, Sanford said, and as a visible aid in learning this technique, a safety film entitled "Rescue Breathing" will be shown at the YMCA Auditorium, 507 Broadway, tonight at 8 o'clock. The public is invited.

The mouth-to-mouth technique was declared the most practical in a unanimous verdict of a committee of the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council after a thorough review of artificial respiration data.

In a report to the local chapter, A. W. Cantwell, national director of Red Cross Safety Services, explained that the Red Cross delayed announcement of its adoption of the method only long enough to prepare and have published an instruction manual for use of its volunteer class instructors. Distribution of copies of this manual to the 3,700 Red Cross chapters has been completed. It was issued as a supplement to the most recent edition of the Red Cross First Aid Textbook, published in 1957.

The technique, also called "mouth - to - nose" respiration, dates back to Biblical times.

Instructions on performing this type of resuscitation, to be started immediately on discovery of the unconscious person, are as follows:

If there is foreign matter visible in the mouth, wipe it out quickly with the fingers or with a cloth wrapped around the fingers.

1. Tilt the head back so the chin is pointing upward. Pull or push the jaw into a jutting-out position. These maneuvers should relieve obstruction of the airway by moving the base of the tongue away from the back of the throat.

2. Open mouth wide and place it tightly over the victim's mouth. At the same time pinch the victim's nostrils shut or close the nostrils with your cheek, or close the victim's mouth and place your mouth over the nose. Blow into the victim's mouth or nose. Air may be blown through the victim's teeth, even though they may be clenched.

The first blowing efforts should determine whether or not obstruction exists.

3. Remove your mouth, turn your head to the side, and listen for the return rush of air that indicates air exchange. Repeat the blowing effort.

There are two major differences in procedure between administering mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to a child and to an adult. One applies to the breathing itself. For a child, take relatively shallow breaths appropriate to the child's size at the rate of about 20 a minute. For an adult, blow vigorously at the rate of about 12 breaths a minute.

The other difference relates to initial failure to get air exchange. If this occurs, re-check head and jaw position. In the case of a child, up-end it by holding the ankles and administer two or three sharp slaps between the shoulder blades. An adult, who cannot be lifted easily, can be turned on his side so that the blows on the back can be given in an effort to dislodge obstructing matter.

Rescuers who do not wish to come in contact with the victim may hold a cloth over the latter's mouth or nose, and breathe through that. The cloth does not greatly affect the change of air.

The Red Cross still considers manual methods of artificial respiration acceptable for rescuers who cannot or will not use the mouth-to-mouth or mouth-to-nose technique, Cantwell said. The two methods it recommends are the Nielsen back pressure-arm life method and the Silvester chest pressure-arm lift method.

Mouth-to-mouth resuscitation for infants and small children was adopted by the Red Cross two years ago. But the method is referred to in the Bible, to Elisha's exploit of reviving the Shunammite woman's child. It is in verses 34-35, Chapter IV of Second Kings.

The Red Cross began teaching artificial respiration in its first aid classes in 1910 and in water safety courses in 1914, Cartwell recalled. "In nearly a half-century uncounted hundreds of lives have been saved by the resuscitation techniques accepted by the Red Cross. To estimate the number more closely would be impossible because many cases of lifesaving occur without being reported to us," he said.

Morhouse Thinks Rocky Stands Best Chance of Election

NEW YORK (AP) — L. Judson Morhouse, Republican state chairman, says he believes Vice President Nixon would make a strong GOP presidential candidate but that Gov. Rockefeller would have a better chance of being elected.

Morhouse commented Wednesday following a protest from California against building up Rockefeller as the only Republican with a chance to win the presidency next year.

The protest came from Alphonzo Bell, chairman of the Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee. The Los Angeles organization heavily favors Nixon, who comes from suburban Whittier.

Bell, while approving competition for the nomination, said "the technique of advancing the presidential candidacy of Nelson Rockefeller on the basis that he alone can win for the GOP next year" was both unfair to the governor and contrary to party interests.

Said Morhouse: "I have never said and I do not say now that an outstanding Republican leader like Vice President Nixon could not win in 1960."

But since Bell "has raised the subject publicly," Morhouse said, "I do believe that Gov. Rockefeller, if he should become a candidate, would have a better chance to be elected president."

Whoever wins the party nomination, Morhouse added, will receive the vigorous support of the New York Republican organization.

Saved by the Law

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—O. V. Norris, 55, picked George E. Emerson, 27, from a police lineup as the man who robbed a grocery store where Norris worked. Then Norris said to an officer, "I'll give you $50 to let me take one punch at him." The officer refused.

KEEPING COOL — Free air is supplied for car passengers, not tires, by an unusual cooling service offered by a drive-in restaurant at Fayetteville, N.C. Placed in an auto window by a carhop, a flexible hose pours in cool air drawn through underground ducts from a 30-horsepower air conditioning unit. A control in the hose outlet permits motorist to adjust the amount of cold air piped into the car.

Buffalo Man Is To Testify About Apalachin Parley

NEW YORK (AP) — The State Investigation Commission called a Buffalo man to the stand today after hearing another witness tell how beautiful the landscape was at the time of the underworld convention at Upstate Apalachin.

The commission said Roy Carlisi, of Buffalo, accepted a subpoena to testify today in the lengthy investigation of the Apalachin conclave.

Carlisi is listed by authorities among the 60-odd underworld figures and associates who attended the meeting at the estate of Joseph Barbara Sr. — now dead— on Nov. 14, 1957.

Carlisi was convicted last May 4 on 15 counts of contempt of a Tioga County Grand Jury. The grand jury was investigating the meeting at Apalachin, a hamlet in Tioga County.

Carlisi was convicted and sentenced to 60 days in jail and fined $3,750. He is appealing the conviction.

Testimony about the beautiful scenery around Barbara's mansion was given Wednesday by Michele A. (Mike) Miranda, of Forest Hills, Queens.

Miranda was trying to talk his way out of jail here, where he has been held for a year along with other witnesses adjudged in contempt for refusing to answer commission questions about the Apalachin meeting.

But the 63-year-old alleged racketeer didn't succeed.

Commission Chairman John W. Ryan Jr., said Miranda's testimoney was "in our opinion incredible in many instances."

Dangerous Drink

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Jimmy Ray Wilson, 12, put his nickel in the dispensing machine and out popped a cup which was filled with a foamy white liquid. He drank it and then was rushed to the hospital where it was learned he had consumed laundry bleach. He recovered. The bleach had been put into the machine by mistake.

More Is Approved For Surveys on Flood Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate-House conference committee has approved a $10,750,000 fund for survey work on future flood-control and navigation projects.

The fund is part of a $1,200,000,000 water projects appropriation bill agreed to by the committee.

The conference committee eliminated two surveys that the Senate had put in the bill. One of them was a $10,000 item for Lake Champlain, N. Y., water. The other was in Illinois.

The surveys approved include these ones affecting New York State:

Great Lakes harbors, $260,000; Delaware River, $330,000; hurricane studies, $950,000; and Hudson River siltation studies, $114,000.

Battle Certain For 14 Seats in New Hampshire

ROCHESTER, N. H. (AP) — A Nixon-Rockefeller battle for New Hampshire's 14 seats at the Republican National Convention appears virtually certain in the state's presidential primary next March 8.

Paul B. Urion, a Rochester lawyer, announced today he will run for a delegate post "either pledged or favorable" to the nomination of the New York governor.

Urion said he has "no authority, either expressed or implied," from Nelson Rockefeller.

Earlier, several New Hampshire supporters of Vice President Richard Nixon had announced they would also seek delegate seats in the first-in-the-nation primary.

Under New Hampshire law, delegates who want to run "pledged" for a candidate must obtain his consent. But a candidate's permission is not required if a delegate chooses to run as "favorable" to him.

Neither Nixon nor Rockefeller has announced any plans for the New Hampshire primary, which also includes a preference poll in which the voters have a chance to register directly their choices for the presidential nominees of both parties.

Catholic University Courses to Be Offered

The Catholic University of America is again offering courses at the Benedictine Hospital School of Nursing this fall and spring of 1960.

"Social Problems" is the title of the course to begin late in September and "Sociology of the Family" is the course for the spring semester. Teachers, nurses and others interested in working toward a master's or baccalaureate degree can obtain three credits for each of these courses.

The Rev. Joseph Kerins, CSsR, PhD, will be the professor. Date and hour of classes will be announced later.

Anyone interested may contact the Benedictine Hospital School of Nursing as soon as possible so that they may ascertain the number of interested applicants.

Strike Duration Hint

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United Steelworkers said today they have a hint how much longer the monthlong steel strike will last.

The union found out some time ago, before the strike began, a union official said, that steel company strategists took a lease until Oct. 15 on special strike-use office space in the Chrysler Building in New York.

Deadline Aug. 15 For Competitive UC Fair Entries

Entries in the competitive classes of the Ulster County Fair close Saturday. The Fair takes place at Forsyth Park, Lucas Avenue, August 19 and 20.

The total value of all cash premiums offered to Ulster County residents is over $10,000. Premium lists are available at the Farm Department office of Ulster County Extension Service, 74 John Street.

All Cooperating

Because of the cooperative nature of the Ulster County Fair, the work of receiving and processing several thousand entry items is divided between the three departments of the Extension Service, the Farm, Home and 4-H Club Departments.

The Home Department handles all entries in the Homemaking Department at 220 Wall Street, and all 4-H Club entries by the 4-H Department. All other open class entries are processed at the Farm Department office.

As no admission is charged to the Ulster County Fair, all income is derived from modest entry fees charged exhibitors and from commercial exhibits.

Albert Kurdt, manager of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce, serves as secretary of the County Fair by permission of the Chamber board of directors. Recently, C. C. DuMond Jr., of Ulster Park, president of the Ulster County Agricultural Society, sponsors of the fair, said that without the gratis help of many organizations and volunteers we could not continue on a free admission basis.

Receive State Funds

The large amount of premiums offered is made possible because the payment of same is reimbursed by the state to promote better agricultural and homemaking practices.

The Ulster County Fair opens at 10 a. m. Wednesday and remains open to 10 p. m. On Thursday the hours are from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Special Caribbean

the principle strictly as well as giving it lip service.

Wouldn't Intervene

Brazil, Colombia, the Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala and Costa Rica also spoke strongly in favor of continued adherence to the principle of nonintervention.

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa sat in silence. He will speak later.

Charges by the Dominican Republic that Cuba is the training ground for revolutionaries bent on foreign invasions led to the calling of the conference to discuss the crisis in the Caribbean.

Castro Policy

Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro has given open moral support to revolutionists opposing dictatorial regimes. He has declared publicly he would not allow them to use Cuba as a springboard for invasions, but invasion forces have taken off from Cuba in unsuccessful attempts to overthrow Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo and President Ernesto de la Guardia Jr. of Panama.

The Panama government declared in a communique early today that it had been tipped another invasion plot against it is being hatched in Cuba.

Say Invasion Planned

PANAMA (AP)—The Panamanian government today claimed that another invasion of Panama is being planned in Cuba to topple President Ernesto de la Guardia Jr.

Interior Minister Jose Dominador said some of those involved also had a hand in last April's abortive investion of the Central American republic.

Oilman, Banker Dies

CLYDE, N. Y. (AP) — Roy A. Van der Meulen, 70, chairman of the board of the Van Oil Co. Inc. of Clyde and Oswego, died today at his home in this Wayne County community.

Van der Meulen, a graduate of Syracuse University, also was president of the Briggs National Bank here.

All Boat Owners Invited to Sail in Welcome Flotilla

Area boat owners who are not affiliated with any yachting or boating club have been invited to participate in welcoming the flotilla sailing from New York City to Albany Saturday in commemoration of Henry Hudson's first cruise up the Hudson river 350 years ago.

The invitation was extended today by Donald W. Schryver, Fleet Captain of the Kingston Power Boat Association, Inc., who said the flotilla is scheduled to pass Kingston at 3:55 p. m.

The assembly area for the local fleet will be between the K.P.B.A's waterfront and the railroad bridge. A ten-minute gun will signal formation of the fleet at 2:50 p. m. and a second gun at 3 p. m. will indicate departure to the Hudson river.

Will Meet Tonight on Plans

The association will hold its monthly meeting tonight and all owners are requested to attend to formulate final plans for this event. Also on the agenda is a report on the Hudson Celebration Ball to be held at the Governor Clinton hotel on Saturday, Sept. 26, and the arranging of a float for the Kingston parade on Sept. 12.

Captain Schryver, in outlining plans for the welcome flotilla, said that when the second gun sounds Saturday all craft are to form a single line, with 30 foot intervals between boats. For safety reasons, cruisers will head the parade, followed by outboard cruisers, inboard runabouts, outboard runabouts and miscellaneous smaller craft will complete the fleet.

Course Charted

The course charted by KPBA officials will be as follows:

Starting at the east end of the Kingston Power Boat Association dock and proceed at legal speed down the Rondout Creek to the Hudson River; down the Hudson River to approximately the old Sun Oil dock, then make a 180 degree turn and lay to until the flotilla passes through our lanes and then fall in and continue up the river.

All members are urgently requested to attend tonight's meeting and support these events.

Control of Labor Rackets Hanging On Thin Balance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The outcome of the bitter House battle over labor racketeering controls hung on a razor-thin balance today.

The result could be determined in a quick windup before nightfall — or drag on indefinitely. A half dozen votes could decide the issue.

The issue rested between a bill backed by Democratic leaders as a middle ground approach, and a more stringent measure personally supported by President Eisenhower.

As tempers flared, the House Wednesday defeated by an overwhelming 245-132 vote a measure carrying the official endorsement of the AFL-CIO and most other organized labor groups.

Sponsored by Rep. John F. Shelley (D-Calif), the labor-supported bill skirted the issues of bans on secondary boycotts, "hot cargo" agreements, and other points stressed by the President as essential to effective labor legislation.

Its defeat had been a foregone conclusion. Both Democratic and Republican leaders opposed it as failing to meet the test of anti-racketeering curbs.

The House also killed, by a 215-160 vote, an amendment proposed by Rep. Adam Caltyon Powell (D-NY) to prohibit segregation or denial of union rights on grounds of race, creed, color or national origin.

Critics charged the Powell amendment was designed to kill effective labor legislation by injecting civil rights issues. After a brief but sharp skirmish, the House agreed.

As battle was joned today, leaders estimated 10 or 15 undecided members held the balance of power in the teetering struggle over passage of a "tough" or "moderate" bill designed to insure the democratic rights of union members, require unions and employers to report their financial dealings, and cope with such disputed matters as boycotts, "blackmail" picketing and the duties of the National Labor Relations Board in minor side-line disputes.

Mamie Leaves to See Ill Mother in Denver

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower has gone to Denver because of the illness of her mother, Mrs. John S. Doud.

The White House disclosed today that Mrs. Eisenhower left Washington by train Tuesday night.

Acting press secretary Wayne Hawks said Mrs. Doud's health has been bad for some time.

Hawks, however, did not agree with a newsman's suggestion that the First Lady's departure was sudden. He said he knew of her decision the day before Mrs. Eisenhower left.

Youth for Christ Rally Slated on Monday Night

Kingston Youth for Christ will hold a rally Monday 7:30 p. m. at Bethany Hall, Old Dutch Church, Wall and Main Streets.

Guest speaker will be John Duchardt, Mrs. Duchardt and daughter will present special vocal and instrumental music.

Knows No More to Do On School Integration

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — At a chicken fry in Mount Nebo, Ark., Wednesday night, Gov. Orval E. Faubus renewed his attacks on some Little Rock public officials for their role in the school integration controversy.

Faubus said he did not know if there was anything more he could do about the Little Rock situation.

"If there is, I'll do it," he said. He did not elaborate.

Faubus accused Police Chief Gene Smith of hitting a woman with a blackjack in Wednesday's street fight. The governor ridiculed police for arresting 24 persons in the incident. He said only three of those arrested were adults.

The governor said Everett Tucker, Little Rock School Board president, had shown in the past "some of the marks of a gentleman." After Wednesday Faubus said, he would not be willing to concede this description fitted Tucker.

School Bus

Present Arrangement

The present policy of the board of education is to transport elementary school children residing one mile or more from their school and high school students who reside two or more miles from the school. The petitioners emphasized that some roads over which the students would be required to walk to and from their school are hazardous.

At the July 16 meeting, a spokesman for the rural committee told the board of education that it was the general understanding in the outlying school districts prior to consolidation that the school bus system would remain substantially is it was. Otherwise, the spokesman said, the rural area would probably have voted against the consolidation.

Merber's Answer

A board of education member said that if everybody was transported in the rural areas, then all pupils in the City of Kingston would have to be transported, resulting in a transportation cost that might soar as high as half a million dollars.

The area committee previously laid particular stress on the saftey of children walking to school and pointed out to school board members that many of the children must walk along hazardous roads, some of which are narrow and in some instances without shoulders.

Point to State Law

Board of education members contend their hands are bound by State Education law, which has no hazard regulation and is based solely on mileage. The board has explained that the state law only requires transportation of children living two miles from school (elementary) or three miles (junior and senior high school) and the Kingston board had cut one mile from each of those limitations.

A board member told the committee at the July meeting that Commissioner of Education Allen and his chief counsel had advised the board not to consider hazards in establishing its policy of transportation.

Ulster Park

ULSTER PARK — Regular services will be resumed at the Dutch Reformed Church Sunday 9:45 a. m. There have been no services at the church since July 12.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Winfield spent a week recently with their daughter and family at Cranston, R. I.

R. C. Gendreau Sr. is spending the week in Miami, Fla., while there he spent Sunday with his father. He expects to be home this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gendreau Jr. spent a few days the first of the week with Mrs. Gendreau's parents in Ballston Spa.

Ulster Grange 969 is planning to enter a booth at the Ulster County Fair in Kingston Aug. 19 and 20. The grange is planning to hold its annual summer fair and supper at the grange hall grounds on the afternoon and evening of Sept. 5.

Injured by Tossed Phonograph Record

Playful tossing of old phonograph records in the Deyo Street area resulted in injury yesterday afternoon to Lawrence Forte, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Forte, of 14 Deyo Street.

The boy suffered a laceration of the head when one of the records hit him as he sat in the grass near his home. He was treated at Benedictine Hospital where eight sutures were taken to close the cut.

Mrs. Forte said two older boys had been tossing the records at the time of the mishap. The records, she said, were of the older, heavy type. Police were notified of the mishap at 3:22 p. m.

Deaths

Girl Scouts 'Soup It Up' At International Roundup

By GAYNOR MADDOX,
NEA Food and Markets Editor

With towering Pikes Peak in the background, we watched five senior Girl Scouts from Philadelphia demonstrate some of the most popular Scout soup recipes. They told us that if all the cans of soup used at the Colorado encampment in July were stacked one on top of the other, they'd reach over a mile high. That's as high as Colorado Springs, where the 8,500 Girl Scouts met for their International Roundup.

Trailbreaker Soup (green pea-tomato (9 seven-ounce servings)

One can (10½ ounces) condensed green pea soup, 2 cans (10½ ounces) condensed tomato soup, 3 soup cans of water.

In saucepan, blend soups and water. Heat, but do not boil. Stir now and then.

Prairie Chowder (chicken-onion-vegetable) (9 seven-ounce servings)

One can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of chicken soup, 1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed onion soup, 1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed vegetable soup, 3 cans (soup) water.

Blend soups and water; heat but do not boil.

Edna Kane, a Brooklyn, N. Y. Scout, liked this gypsy stew. Says it should be served with "walking salad," made of sliced carrots, celery sticks and tomato wedges eaten out of hand.

Gypsy Stew

Brown 1 onion and 1 green pepper in butter or fat. Add 2 pounds chopped beef, one can condensed vegetable soup, and ½ soup can of water. Cook over campfire until meat is cooked through.

We next visited the girls from Connecticut. Laurel Booth from Stamford, a science trophy winner, gave us a mug of their breakfast bounce broth.

Breakfast Bounce Broth (9 seven-ounce servings)

One can (10½ ounces) condensed beef broth, 2 cans (10½ ounces each) condensed tomato soup, 3 soup cans water.

Blend soups with water. Heat.

Hardy Man, Statue

WILSON, N. Y., (AP)—A 900-pound iron statue of a 19th Century fireman, and the man who was model for it, have weathered the years well. The statue, which stands near the firehall, was cast in 1886 and has been on outdoor display ever since. The man who modeled for it, George Singer, continues to live in nearby Lockport and celebrated his 92nd birthday this year.

Lift Freeze, Says Prendergast, on State Road Jobs

NEW YORK (AP) — Democratic State Chairman Michael H. Prendergast has urged Gov. Rockefeller to lift the freeze on major new highway projects.

Prendergast says the freeze—instituted by the Republican governor until federal funds become available — was "premature, ill-advised and unnecessary."

In a telegram to Rockefeller Wednesday, Prendergast said:

"The logical course which would have been to keep the program going until a final determination was arrived at by Congress....

"To repair in some measure the damage already done, I respectfully ask that you lift the freeze and permit immediate resumption of normal highway construction schedules."

Republican State Chairman L. Judson Morhouse said in Albany that Prendergast "obviously has sent the wrong telegram with wrong facts to the wrong office."

Morhouse added in a statement that Prendergast should urge the leaders of the Democratic-controlled Congress to take action so that New York State would get its share of federal highway money.

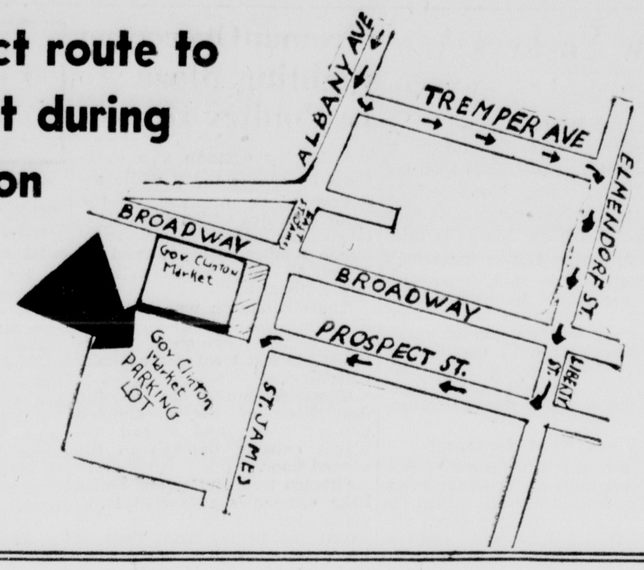

The uncertainty over how much federal money will be available for highway construction stems from a wrangle in Congress over raising the money for federal contributions.

CENTRAL HUDSON

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING...

by ROGER E. SPEAR
Investment Advisor and Analyst

ROGER E. SPEAR

91-Year Old Reader Has Good Sense of Values; List Needs Little Change

Q. M. writes, "What do you think of General Telephone and Central Vermont Public Service? I have a block of American Telephone, some local bank stock, a number of mutual funds, and 50 shares of Textron preferred. I am thinking of trading my American Cement for Central Vermont Public Service. I am 91-years old."

A. I like General Telephone and Electronics, which among other things, is the largest of the independent telephone groups. The merger with Sylvania Electric last March put General into industrial operations with a large position in electronics. The stock is not cheap but a share split has just been announced, and an increased dividend. On a growth basis, I would place General way ahead of Central Vermont Public Service. The latter is a good, small utility serving a rather static section of New England. There is twice the yield in this situation (4.65%) than can be obtained from General Telephone at recent levels.

Let me put it this way. If you want growth, and regardless of years a man as keen as you should consider this, I would buy General Telephone & Electronics. If you require income, you have a good, safe candidate in Central Vermont P. S. Your holdings require little comment. You are rather heavy in mutual funds, but those you list are good investments in their class. Textron preferred is convertible into common and sells at a level which reflects the rise on the latter stock. I consider Textron rather speculative, but the company has been doing better earnings-wise, the preferred offer a good return and the dividend has been well covered. I don't think you need to disturb this holding.

If you wish to strengthen your list, however, I would pick Textron preferred, rather than American Cement, as a trade for Central Vermont Public Service. American Cement is one of the largest units in the industry. It serves the northeastern states, the Detroit area and fast growing southern California. The stock has acted relatively well in a poor market for the cements. These stocks have persistently lagged behind in this bull market, and in my opinion will catch up some day. Thank you for writing to me. I sincerely hope that, when I am in my nineties, I'll have as keen a sense of values as you have.

SELL SECOND-GRADE RAIL

Q. From New York State, "I have three New York, New Haven and Hartford 4% first and refunding bonds due 2007. These were bought at 62. Do you advise selling these bonds now? I am a small investor and ought to have been a more conservative one, I fear."

A. It is a very serious thing to advise an investor to take a substantial loss on an investment. I have given your question a good deal of thought and have tried to be very objective about answering you. You see, up here in New England we have never thought very highly of the New Haven Railroad. Control has shifted repeatedly, but the management policies seem to remain the same.

The New Haven's trouble, of course, stems from the fact that the road has a heavy passenger load on which it consistently loses money. The New Haven operated at a substantial deficit in 1958 and has been one of the very few Class I roads to report little improvement in the first half of 1959. Your bonds are not in a strong position, which is why they sell around 44. I don't think they will default their interest, but I can't see much hope for price recovery, at least for a very long time to come.

If you can afford the cut in income, I advise you to sell your New Haven 4s and put the proceeds in American Hospital Supply common stock, selling around 42. This is a very strong growth situation, a leader in the business its name suggests. I believe American Hospital Supply is much more likely to sell at 60 in the next two years, than are your New Haven bonds.

Considerable Talk On Radioactive Rock and Infants

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—New York public health officials are considering inviting several states to a meeting that would explore the possible link between radioactive rock and malformed babies.

Dr. John Gentry reported last April his investigations showed an unusually large number of malformed infants were born in parts of Upstate New York where granite and shale of more than usual radioactivity were exposed.

Congress has appropriated $50,000 to extend the study nationwide.

Gentry, the health department's director for the Syracuse region, confirmed that an interstate conference was in the planning stage. It will probably be held in Albany in the fall, Gentry said.

Likely to be invited are Maine, Vermont, Maryland, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Illinois, Colorado, the Dakotas and Florida.

Robert Hall

Rosner, one of its founders. "We achieve lower overhead in this way: By locating outside the high-rent districts; by doing away with unnecessary overhead such as costly show windows, fancy fixtures, plush furnishings and expensive interior displays; and by a cash-and-carry selling which eliminates credit bookkeeping and carrying costs.

"We've thrown out everything they can't put on their backs," is the way Mr. Rosner summed it up, paraphrasing the firm's famous slogan, "Why pay for overhead if you can't wear it?"

Sites for new Robert Hall family clothing centers are selected only after painstaking research. In order to bring low overhead clothing values to more families, Robert Hall tries to choose a location convenient to several communities with plenty of available parking space to accommodate today's car-riding population, the president said.

Adm. Robert E. Peary discovered the North Pole in 1909.

New Yorkers Are

this country...," said a butcher in Oswego.

Not Worth Expense

"You're going to have to put a lot of FBI men on him to keep his head from being blown off. I don't think it's worth the expense involved," a Rome housewife said.

An American Legion spokesman at Poughkeepsie said demonstrations should not be held against Khrushchev because they would embarrass our government.

In New York City, the Hungarian Freedom Fighters Federation said it would refrain from violence or demonstrations during Khrushchev's tour.

Urges Silent Treatment

Dr. Edward M. O'Connor of Buffalo, a former U. S. Commissioner of Displaced Persons, called the visit "a far reaching political victory for international communism." He urged Ukranian Front groups to give the Russian premier "the silent treatment."

The mayor of Endicott, E. Raymond Lee, invited Khrushchev to his city. But Mayor John J. Burns of Binghamton said Khrushchev is "a man I despise. I would not want to invite him here."

Mayor Calvin L. Keller of Niagara Falls said that if Khrushchev stops at the Falls, which usually are on the itinerary of visiting officials, it would be as a guest of Eisenhower.

Couldn't Be Cordial

Jamestown Mayor Carl F. Sanford said "I'm not certain if inviting him here (to the United States) is the right thing to do... I personally don't think I could be very cordial..."

On Long Island, several groups invited Khrushchev to "come and see for yourself" that the model home exhibited at the U. S. trade fair in Moscow was a typical suburban dwelling.

An Albany attorney said "I'd like him to look at the General Electric parking lot, showing the cars workers own."

"Show him the East River and then push him in," was a New York City man's comment.

Sees Lasting Impression

"Although we will not greet Khrushchev with cheers, his first-hand contact with American democracy in action should make a lasting impression on him," a Rochester merchant said.

However, a Batavia woman said "this traitor and lord high executioner of millions of innocent people" should not be "allowed to desecrate our shores..."

"If he (Khrushchev) comes here without his blustery attitude...I think it would be a good thing for world peace," a Troy automobile salesman said.

A tire repairman in Middletown disagreed. "He'll steal our secrets," he said.

The visit might prevent a war, an Elmira realty broker said. "I believe Khrushchev doesn't want a war but I think he feels we want war."

Too Hard To Change

"Khrushchev is too hard a communist to ever change by meeting Eisenhower. Every time we've had meetings with them, it seems like we've been outwitted," a New burgh factory worker said.

"I don't care one way or another about Khrushchev's visit," a gas station operator in Rome said. "Let Washington take care of it. That's what they're getting paid for."

FiremanOvercome Fighting Blaze In Poultry House

A Hurley fireman was overcome by smoke today while assisting other firemen at the scene of a fire which caused extensive damage to a three-story frame poultry house owned by Myron Goldman on Lucas Avenue Extension.

Robert Johnson was taken to Kingston Hospital in a Fatum 2-way radio equipped ambulance. He was treated for smoke poisoning.

The fire broke out on the first floor of the unoccupied poultry house and spread upwards causing damage to the second floor.

Firemen from Hurley and Spring Lake companies responded to an alarm shortly after 11 a. m. They fought the flames more than an hour.

Mrs. Goldman told a Freeman reporter that she and her sister, Mrs. Helen Elwin were in the house when they noticed a clicking noise in the water pipes. They went to a window to investigate and saw smoke billowing from the lower part of the poultry house.

Mrs. Goldman summoned firemen. She said trunks and other articles that were stored in the building were damaged or destroyed by the flames. The origin of the blaze was not immediately determined.

Hope for Child

contained tetralthyl and pyrophosphate into the tank of the spray rig. Then they poured two quart bottles of a mixture into the tank. Meanwhile, the empty bags were on the ground near the empty bottles.

According to investigation by Kaljean, the little girl picked up a bottle and after rubbing her hand and fingers in the liquid that remained in the bottle, she put her fingers in her mouth. This occurred while the farm workers were burning the paper bags.

Inhaled Fumes

Kaljean stated the girl inhaled fumes that came from the burning bags before the farm workers noticed what she had done. The child became ill and she was taken to the office of Dr. Carl Meekin for emergency treatment.

Advised of what occurred, Dr. Meekin suggested that the child be taken to a hospital if her condition didn't improve. Kaljean said the girl collapsed later and she was rushed to St. Francis hospital, where her name was placed on the critical list last night.

Kaljean stated that before he left the hospital this morning, he was informed the name of the girl had been taken from the critical list, as she responded to treatment for the poisioning.

According to the trooper, one bag that was burned contained tetralthyl pyro-phosphate, 40% and another contained organic phosphate, 60%. Kaljean said the details of the investigation will be reported to Ulster County health authorities.

State Group Acts

The law authorizes misdemeanor charges for violators and prescribes fines up to $500 and jail sentences up to a year.

Rockefeller's office said charitable organizations had complained that the registration and filing provisions caused administrative problems for organzations that worked solely through volunteers.

Rockefeller's office said the committee would work with the Social Welfare Department and charitable organizations. It will make its recommendations to the governor by the next legislative session.

No Pay, Just Expenses

Members of the committee serve without salary but will be reimbursed for expenses.

Besides Albright, the members are:

George L. Bliss, New York banker; Arthur J. Doran, Yonkers lawyer; Hugh R. Jackson, president of New York City's Better Business Bureau; Cy B. Physicians Have sociation were postponed until about the middle of September, if vaccine is available at that time.

It was made known today that polio vaccine clinics scheduled for August 20 and September 24 at Chambers School, Town of Ulster, had been cancelled because vaccine must be shipped to other parts of the country where outbreaks of polio have developed. No date has been set for the two clinics because it is not known definitely when a supply of vaccine sufficient for large clinics will be available.

A clinic scheduled at Saugerties also has been cancelled. Clinics scheduled for Rosendale, Marbletown and Olive will be held on the dates previously announced, because polio vaccine is available in those places.

Girl, 7, Has Minor Injuries in Car Mishap

Diane Battaglia, 7, of Orchard Lane, Hurley, escaped serious injury at 11:10 a. m. today when she ran into the left front fender of an automobile on Route 209 in front of the Hurley post office.

Deputy Sheriff Earl Conro who policed the mishap said the car driven by Austin Dunham, 66, of Stone Ridge, was traveling toward Stone Ridge on Route 209 when the girl ran from the side of the highway.

Conro said the girl received minor bruises.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—Electronics shares clicked to the upside after erasing early losses as the stock market moved unevenly in slow trading early this afternoon.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point were the general rule for key stocks.

The more speculative issues showed no wider range than this but a couple of specially situated stocks moved more broadly.

The market was mixed from the start. The opening was less vigorous than usual. Brokers felt the market was still undergoing a corrective phase. Buyers were cautious.

Some motors and coppers were ahead slightly. Enough of the pivotal rails advanced to give the carriers a slight edge to the upside. Utilities edged off.

Chemicals, aircrafts, steels and rubbers were irregular.

Texas Instruments, Litton Industries, Motorola, Raytheon and Anaconda rose about a point.

Town of Esopus

tion of a street light on Agnes Street, Port Ewen.

Acting on a petition, the board voted to change the name of Shaupeneak Road, between Rifton and Esopus to Old Post Road, the original name.

Mail Box Sought

The board authorized Supervisor Mabie to contact the Post Office Department seeking the location of a mail box near the center of the Port Ewen business district.

Supervisor Mabie reported on the township's successful participation in the Hudson-Champlain celebration. He pointed out that the event proved self supporting.

The meeting was adjourned with a moment of silent prayer in memory of Raymond Howe, a former Town of Esopus supervisor who died two weeks ago.

Collide in Fog

KIEL, Germany (AP)—A small German coastal freighter and a Soviet destroyer collided in a fog near Kiel in the western Baltic today, but the crew of the German ship plugged the hole in their vessel.

The Soviet ship resumed a westbound course in company with two other warships, and it was not know if she had been damaged.

Would Ask Nations Be in World's Fair

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three New York members of Congress imtroduced a bill today to authorize President Eisenhower to invite foreign countries to participate in a world's fair in 1964 in New York City.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) introduced the bill in the Senate in behalf of himself and Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, his Republican colleague. Rep. Edna F. Kelly (D-NY) offered a companion bill in the House.

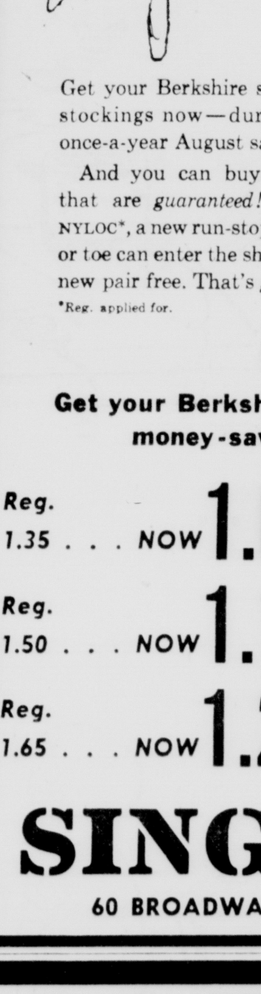

He and Mrs. Kelly estimated some 70 million persons would visit the fair.

Automation Hurts

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — A traffic safely expert says automatic cars are making it possible for more accidents to happen. Allen E. Hawkes, state supervisor of research and highway safety promotion, told the Kiwanis Club automatic transmissions, power steering, power brakes and other improvements make driving possible for too many people who shouldn't.

Report Brochure Ready on Taxes

ALBANY — State Comptroller Arthur Levitt today announced the publication of the 1959 edition of a brochure on local property and non-property taxes and their relation to real property values in New York State.

The booklet, the fifth in a series, lists the taxes imposed locally by each community in the state and relates such taxes to the real property values of the community. Statistics are broken down between taxes for school purposes, for other purposes, and for special assessments.

The data for the fiscal year ending in 1958 shows that local governments in this state, including county, city, village, town, school districts and other districts raised a total of $2.35 billion in taxes and assessments. Real property taxes accounted for more than 80 per cent of the total, while non-property taxes accounted for the remainder. One-third of all locally raised revenue was devoted to school purposes.

In relation to population, local tax revenue amounted to $141 per person for 1958. Local taxes for school purposes increased from $13.81 per $1,000 of full valuation of real property for the school year ended 1958 to $14.56 for the school year ended 1959.

Revenue figures for school purposes are available for the fiscal year ended in 1959, and have, therefore, been included.

Copies of the brochure may be obtained by writing to the Public Information Office of the Department of Adult and Control, Albany.

Along Capitol Corridors

By CHARLES DUMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller has so many studies going that no one is exactly sure how many there are.

When pressed, his office can list 28 major projects that have been announced But there are perhaps a half dozen more quietly in the works.

Also, there are numerous other small inquiries and investigations that Rockefeller aides decline to list as study projects.

"Some of these small studies are part of bigger studies," an aide explained. "It's hard to keep track of all of them."

The government study is, of course, no stranger to Albany. Most governors before Rockefeller have used it as a device both to stimulate action and to delay action.

Study It to Death

Former Gov. Averell Harriman, who ordered quite a few studies himself, once shocked his own staff by observing publicly:

"Anybody can tell you that the way to get rid of something is to study it to death."

Capitol observers thus looked a bit cynically upon the super-study operation launched by Rockefeller even before he took office last January.

Shortly, however, it became apparent that he meant business. He ordered quick "crash" studies of railroad finances and labor-management relations. These inquiries produced new, major laws—a tax-relief program for railroads and a "code of ethics" for union operations.

Another Rockefeller study ordered last winter came to fruition a bit later but produced even more startling results. This was the plan unveiled by Rockefeller last month for requiring people to build radiation shelters in their homes.

Rockefeller quickly organized another study committee to recommend ways of implementing the plan.

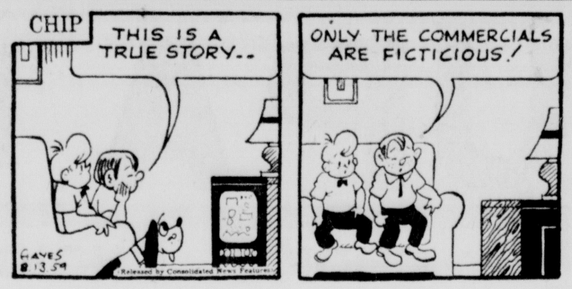

Other Studies

Other Rockefeller-ordered studies have such ambitious goals as reorganizing the executive branch of state government, finding and remedying the causes of unemployment, improving the state's educational system, overhauling the state's tax structure and so forth.

If he can, Rockefeller persuades experts in the various fields or respected executives to conduct these inquiries as a form of public service. He usually gives them deadlines.

Most of the studies now under way are supposed to produce recommendations before the 1960 legislative session. These recommendations will form Rockefeller's legislative program.

Taken together, the various studies could lead to a major reorganization of the functions and services of the state government.

With These Methods, Being Happy at 75 Is No Problem

"Write a column about how to be happy at 75 with every friend gone and having to live on $100 a month, social security," asks one of my readers.

It can be done. A number of women in my town are doing it. It takes good health, courage and a determined effort to be happy. With those assets, a woman of 75 isn't really old.

The women I'm talking about are widows. Some are closer to 80 than 75. But they've found the solution of how to add to their fixed incomes by baby-sitting in their neighborhood.

Baby-sitting not only gives them a chance to make money, but gets them acquainted with their young neighbors. Many of the neighbors become interesting and obliging friends.

It also gives them a feeling of being useful, which women need at every age in life. Instead of sitting home alone, night after night, these women are often booked weeks in advance by young parents who depend on them for a little freedom and recreation. To the children, they are like adopted grandmothers.

The money they earn is a real ego-builder. So are such words from grateful parents as, "I don't know what we would do without you" and "we never worry about the children when you are with them."

So if you have the health and strength, look into baby-sitting as a way of adding to your income and making yourself a contributing member of your community.

As for friends, there is no age at which a person has to stop acquiring new ones. You must have stopped a long time ago if all your friends are gone.

A wise man once told me, "for every friend I lose I make a new one." That is the best way of making sure you don't outlive all of your friends.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An increase in the marketing of lambs brings lower prices for leg of lamb in many communities this weekend. Several chain stores were featuring the item as among best buys.

Other meats offered as specials in various sections are sirloin steak, ham, bacon and lamb shoulders. Rock Cornish game hens are favored in some localities, as are fresh swordfish and medium grade shrimp.

Not only domestic ham, but also the imported variety is offered at special prices.

A bumper crop of fruits in California has pushed down prices for both fresh and canned fruits. Supermarkets are expected to launch a flurry of bargain promotions soon.

Cantaloupes from California have forced down the price in the East. There also is a fairly good supply of honeydew melons. Peaches can be found in all price ranges. Blueberries, limes and summer apples continue among best buys.

There were a goodly number of buys in fresh vegetables. Among them were cabbage, squash, corn, eggplant, snap beans, lettuce, green onions, potatoes, peppers and tomatoes.

Price trends were mixed in various parts of the country. Thus, eggs were lowered as much as 6½ cents a dozen by one chain in the Southeast while being raised 4 cents a dozen in the Midwest.

Butter prices tilted a bit higher. Chickens were among special sales items in several sections.

Fire Destroys Foundry

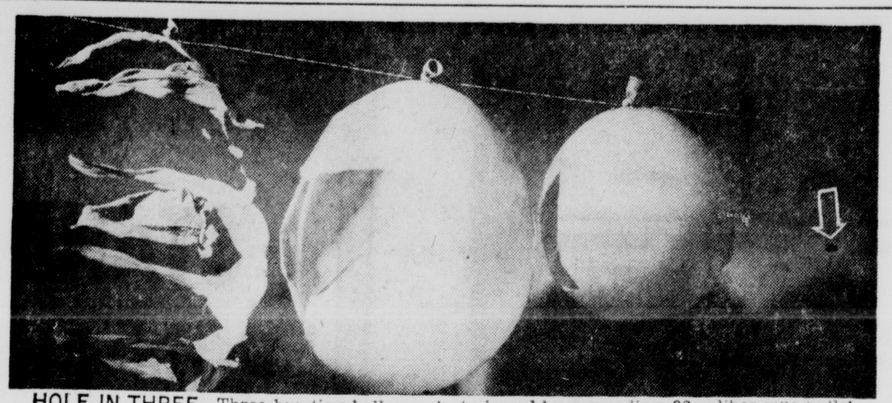

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Fire destroyed the Fay Grey Iron Foundry plant on the city's west side Wednesday night.

No one was injured but a company official estimated that at least a quarter of a million dollars damage was caused.

The one-story frame and concrete structure employed 25.

The cause of the fire was not determined.

Today two-fifths of Minnesota, or nearly 20 million acres, is in forests.

HOLE IN THREE—Three bursting balloons, just pierced by a speeding .22 caliber rifle bullet (arrow), are frozen in this photograph taken in 500,000th of a second. The stroboscopic picture was made by Dr. Harold E. Edgerton at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where experiments in high-speed photography reveal the actions of materials when struck by projectiles. Collapse of balloons is one of the fastest subjects known, other than explosives.

Erie Sheriff Says Not Using Names Aids Delinquency

SCHROON LAKE, N. Y. (AP)—The sheriff of Erie County says secrecy provisions of the Youth Court Act could cause the juvenile delinquency rate to soar.

It is of "vital necessity for the public to know the identity of young criminals, regardless of age. The fear of social censure has long been a basic deterrent to wrongdoing," Sheriff Robert A. Glasser said Wednesday.

He spoke at the 25th annual convention of the State Sheriffs Assn.

He declared:

"The misguided policy of protecting all youthful offenders by withholding their names affords these lawbreakers license to commit additional crimes."

Newspapers also have objected to the secrecy provisions of the act, which would shield the names of offenders 18 through 20.

During convention sessions, Sheriff Howard A. Harvey of Tompkins County was elected president of the association, succeeding Sheriff John E. Hoy of Westchester County.

Others elected:

Charles McCloskey Jr. of Chautauqua County, first vice president; Carl McCoy of Warren, second vice president; Thomas V. Kennedy of Wyoming, secretary, and Charles Dominy of Suffolk, treasurer.

Edward Dillon of Albany was re-elected counsel and executive director.

Free Elections Seem Doomed for Years

Some Aspects of Cuba's Growing Revolution Have Real Ugly Look

Editor's Note: In this second article of a series of three, William L. Ryan, Associated Press Foreign News Analyst, gives some answers to the question of whether another dictatorship is likely in Cuba. Ryan has just conducted a new survey of developments in Cuba since he was last there as the Batista dictatorship collapsed.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

HAVANA (AP)—It can be unwise for a Cuban to be careless about questions nowadays.

He might ask casually of the wrong person: "How do you think things are going these days?" and be told partly: "That's a counter-revolutionary question."

El Jefe Maximo — the topmost leader — of the revolution, Prime Minister Fidel Castro has a strange idea of democracy. To win Cuba seems to represent the purest form of Athenian democracy because the crowds come out at his beck and call to cheer for his leadership.

Liberty on Surface

Castro rails against dictatorships in Latin America, and it is likely he is completely sincere in beleving himself a champion of liberty. On the surface there's liberty in Cuba.

A man can talk openly if he chooses. But if he is overheard, he can be in for trouble. A newsman can print what he wants without a censor looking over his shoulder. But when it appears in print he can find himself in hot water.

There seems little prospect for free elections in Cuba for years—nor is there much prospect for formation of real opposition political activity.

Permits No Doubt

Castro, however, does not appear to relate these things to dictatorship. It's just that he does not seem to permit Cubans any doubt about the road they're traveling.

Some aspects of the developing revolution have an ugly look, though on the surface they might appear innocent enough.

For example, there are the "Patrullas Juveniles"—the youth patrols. On the surface these are little more than Boy Scout-type organizations devoted to fine and patriotic ideals. But underneath they seem something else again.

The youth patrol made its appearance in olive drab uniforms in the big parade celebrating the July 26 anniversary of Castro's movement. The boys were executing a curious little twisted goose-step. They are part of Castro's revolution.

Their Job to Inform

The "Patrullas Juveniles de la Policia Revolucionaria" is billed as an organization intended to "help the police." The youths in the patrol are supposed to inform the police of what happens in their neighborhoods.

In the old days under Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship, such a person would have been called a "chivato"—meaning a little bleating goat, informer or, to put it in the proper colloquial English, stool pigeon. Now they are being called "young civic citizens."

Other ominous portents include the notion of many workers, including some sugar cane campesinos, that the revolution permits them to strike at the drop of a hat for the most outlandish demands. While this may be a temporary phase springing from workers' glorying in unaccustomed freedom it is being used by Communist agitators to foment restiveness.

In some areas Communist-infiltrated unions now are sufficiently powerful to become a clearing-house for the labor force with full control over job assignments and wages.

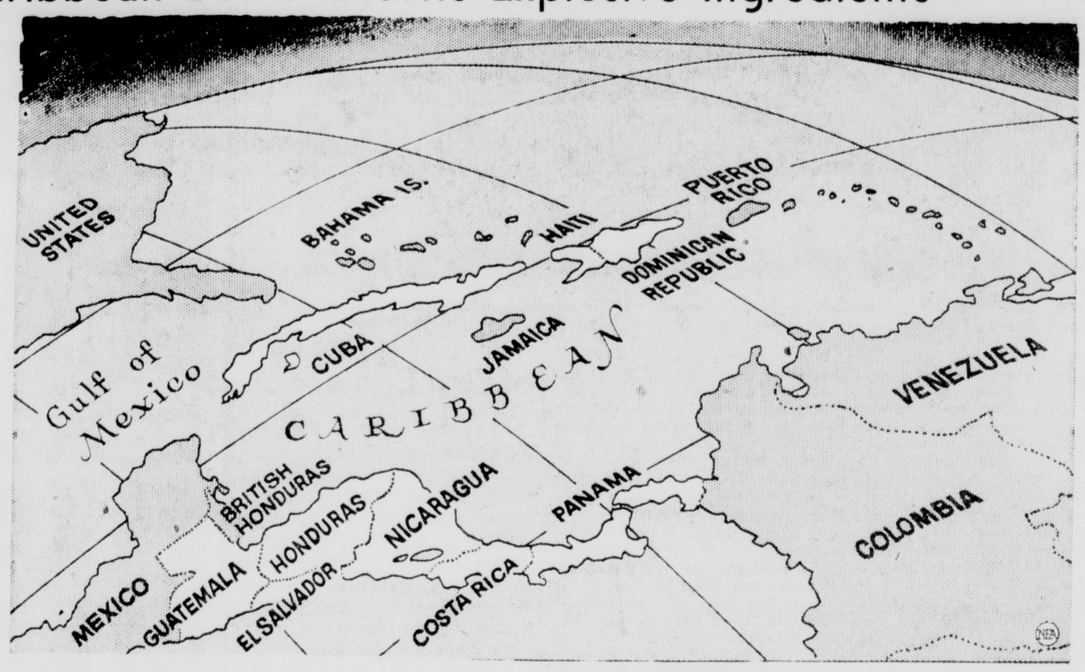

These are only symptoms. Perhaps much of this will be overcome. On the whole, even among the harassed middle class, there is much well-wishing for Castro's revolution, and much confidence it will succeed in the long run despite gloomy portents.

Next: Hope Amid Confusion.

To Open in Puerto Rico

The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico will be the site of the S. S. Kresge Company's first stores outside the North American continent, Harry B. Cunningham, president and cheif executive officer of the expanding retailing chain announced today. Leases have been signed and Kresge's expects to have three modern new shopping center units operating in the metropolitan San Juan area early in 1960, Cunningham indicated. The first two Puerto Rican stores, located in the 65th Infantry and Santa Rosa shopping centers, are slated for completion by December.

Caribbean Bomb and Its Explosive Ingredients - - -

- CUBA: Unemployment, land reform troubles, conspiracies plague Castro. Many regimes fear him.
- HAITI: Mountainous land has poor, illiterate population. Army, police bolster shaky Duvalier regime.
- DOMINICAN REPUBLIC: Trujillo dictatorship keeps tight grip on country; views Castro as dangerous.
- GUATEMALA: Communists once ruled, were ousted. Reds now threaten to overturn Ydigoras government.
- EL SALVADOR: Low coffee prices, rural unrest, active Red underground worry Lemus government.
- HONDURAS: Revolution nearly an annual event. President Villeda is under much subversive pressure.
- NICARAGUA: Somoza family has run country for 33 years; anti-Castro since invasion attempt in June.
- COSTA RICA: Stable democracy led by President Echandi, a neutralist. But assembly opposes him.
- PANAMA: Opponents of President de la Guardia want to nationalize canal. Cubans tried invasion here.

Better for Congress No to Be in Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration apparently will be happy if Congress goes home before Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev comes to town.

That is the definite impression Vice President Richard M. Nixon has obtained from his Capitol Hill associates. Many members of Congress have let it be known they hope Congress will have finished its work before Khrushchev arrives Sept. 15.

The adjournment date still is uncertain.

Survey Discloses Colonie Has Many Growth Problems

(Editors: Suddenly a tranquil community finds itself sprouting What does it do to prevent the new growth from ge tting out of hand? What is the most serious problem? The Albany Knickerbocker News looked into the situation at Colonie In an AP member Enterprise story it tells of a small community's growing pains.

By CHARLES STORER
Albany Knickerbocker News

COLONIE, N. Y. (AP) — The quiet residential street had a settled look.

Large, leafy maples shaded the neat colonial homes, each one different. Lawns, thick carpets, were carefully trimmed; shrubs and flowers added individuality and color.

Beside one of the homes, a sleek outboard rested in its trailer. Next door, a woman cleaned the ashes from a barbecue pit.

Several blocks away, newer homes lined a sun-struck street. At the far end, a house was under construction. Sprinklers encouraged fledgling lawns, and saplings were carefully braced.

Nearby, workmen were enlarging an elementary school. Next week, this new residential street will be torn up and a sanitary sewer system installed.

Settled Suburb

The scene is typical of many sections of Colonie, a sprawling town of some 50 square miles into which three bordering cities—Albany, Schenectady, and Troy—are overflowing.

The town is at once a settled suburb and an area of booming residential, commercial and industrial development.

Officials of Colonie feel the growing pains of such a mushrooming suburb can best be eased by judicious doses of planning and zoning, and careful control of construction.

Colonie, and the two incorporated villages within it, have increased in population from 29,369 in 1950 to more than 50,000.

In the last five years, more than 2,500 new homes have been constructed. This has been accompanied by a commensurate amount of commercial building, new churches, schools and other structures.

The planning and zoning activities are designed primarily to protect property values by insuring that a warehouse, for instance, is not built next to a $50,000 residence, or that apartment buildings do not rise in an area of one-family homes.

Selected areas are set aside with the hope they will be developed by business and industrial interests, boost the town's assessed valuation, and relieve the rising tax burden on homes.

Regardless of the intensity of zoning and planning, there are still problems.

As more homes are built, more streets must be maintained, more school, water and sewer facilities provided.

Fire and police departments need to be enlarged.

Tax Rise Slow

The property tax, exclusive of levies imposed for special districts, has risen less than $16 in the past decade, from $24.36 per $1,000 in 1949 to $39.99. The increase in taxable property held down the climb.

It is in the area of public education that this cozy circumstance breaks down.

For example, in the South Colonie Central School District, a tax rate of $18.96 was imposed to support the district's first budget after centralization in 1949.

Since then, the rate has almost tripled, to $53.19. It is expected to rise again next year.

The large number of new homes means more families, children, classrooms, maintenance, teachers, supplies and transportation.

The ramifications of the school tax problem are widespread.

Teachers in one school district are disgruntled. Many of them are seeking jobs elsewhere, because the economy-minded Board of Education, faced with a whopping debt in construction bonds, has rejected a higher salary schedule.

The school district is in the throes of a fiscal fight over the level of its budget. Voters twice have rejected a 3.5 million dollar budget proposed by the Board of Education.

In Colonie's other centralized school district, which has just completed a major building program, the budget recommended by the Board of Education also was turned down. Residents adopted a revised budget only after funds for new library books and other services were eliminated.

The effects of the rising school tax rates are felt also by municipal government. The Republican Town Board has drawn a lesson from the defeat of the two budgets, and will weigh carefully additional expenditures or capital improvements.

In Colonie Village, many voters have protested a $40,000 expenditure for a street department garage and renovation of the village hall, projects the village board feels are essential. The board contends that the projects are not likely to boost the tax rate. But citizens point out that the money will still come from taxes.

There may be no final solution, except saturation, to the problem of rising taxes. The amount of land available for Colonie—or any suburb—is not infinite. There will come a time when the boom ends.

PARIS'S NEW LOOK — This is Bobigny, a Paris suburb, whose curved five-story buildings are an architectural departure from the usual homes in the French capital.

Trailers Collide, One Driver Dies

LEROY, N. Y. (AP) — Two westbound tractor-trailers collided on the Thruway here Wednesday night, fatally injuring one of the drivers who was trapped in his crushed cab.

Donald E. Walkup, 48, of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, died soon after workmen freed him from the wreckage.

Injured slightly were the other driver, William Eskelevich, 42, of Groveland, Mass., and his 11 year-old son, Robert. State Police said the collision occurred when Walkup's truck was overtaking Eskelevich's. The accident slowed Thruway traffic for more than three hours.

4-H'ers Prepare To Aid in Census

CHICAGO—When the census taker knocks on the door of a 4-H farm family this fall he can be pretty sure that the younger members of the household had a hand in rounding up the required information, stated Norman C. Mindrum, director, National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, Chicago, Ill.

Answers will be needed to questions involving number of acres in crops or pasture; kind and number of livestock and poultry; inventory of farm equipment; kind and quantities of farm products produced and sold; cost of gasoline and oil; breakdown of man-hours spent on and off the farm.

Keeping accurate records in relation to 4-H project work is a "must" for club members, so they learn how to go about gathering statistics relating to production, costs, sales and the like. As a matter of fact, the 4-H record book is an important item in judging annual 4-H award winners, Mindrum said.

Most 4-H'ers throughout the county have had considerable experiences in keeping tabs on farm operation and personal activities while successfully fulfilling the requirements of 4-H programs in achievement, leadership, and community service, according to the Cooperative Extension Service which directs the work.

Members who do an outstanding job in these areas look forward to competing for one of several awards provided each year by leading business enterprises and public-spirited citizens. Awards for achievement are given by the Ford Motor Company; leadership by Edward Foss Wilson; community relations by the Wrigley Jr. Company, Mindrum announced.

College scholarships, expense-paid trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, medals and certificates of honor are the incentives offered to qualifying club members.

Pheasant Is Pet

STERLING, Ill., (AP) — A hitchhiking pheasant has become pals with bus driver George Near. On day Near saw a cock pheasant beside the road. As the bus passed, the pheasant began chasing the vehicle. Near stopped, walked up to the bird and took it in his hands. He placed the feathered friend on the rail behind the driver's seat and continued down the road. After a distance, he released his passenger. The next day Near found the pheasant waiting at the same place. He stopped the bus and put him on the same perch. But when he wanted to discharge the bird, it wouldn't leave the bus. Now Near has a pheasant who no longer hitchhikes but lives at the bus company office.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Cheaper, or at least stable, food prices and the wherewithal to pay them are implied today in two government reports.

One predicts abundant harvests. The other reports record employment as the nation heads into the period that usually sees the lowest volume of unemployment for the year.

A prolonged steel strike could cause layoffs in factories that need the metal. This would cut total consumer incomes. But if settlement can be made by mid-September, unemployment should dwindle further. Any more paychecks would add to the increasing total of personal incomes.

Abundant supplies of most foodstuffs is reported by the Agriculture Department. And the chances for cheaper meats soon are based on two factors: above-average production of feed grains and hay; and the steady buildup in livestock herds so that more animals will be shipped to the market this fall and next year.

The corn crop is expected to be the biggest in history, topping last year's record by 10 per cent. The hay crop is larger than the 1948-57 average. The department estimates total production of feed grains as 135 per cent higher than the 1947-49 average.

This means that livestock raisers will have abundant feed for fattening cattle, pigs and lambs. They have been bush building up herds depleted during the drought years. This will soon be pushing more steers into the stockyards. And it should end the policy of recent years of withholding breeding stock.

The hog population seems sure to stay high through the fall and spring. Big corn harvests tend to boost hog production.

Thus meat supplies should grow more plentiful and prices should ease.

After Labor Day—if the steel strike ends in a few more weeks — employment, workweeks and earnings all should rise.

The auto makers will be starting work on the new models. Other manufacturers will be turning out goods for the Christmas and general winter trade. It could mean another boom.

Civil Service Seeks Electronics Mechanics

Opportunities for employment as electronic mechanic at the U. S. Naval Weapons Plant, and the U. S. Naval Research Laboratory, Washington, D. C., have been announced by the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, U. S. Naval Weapons Plant.

An examination for electronics mechanic has been announced to fill immediate vacancies at the plant and laboratory. Future vacancies may be filled at other naval activities as well as at various other federal agencies in the metropolitan Washington, D. C. area.

The entrance salary is $20.88 a day. Applicants must have completed a four-year apprenticeship as an electronic mechanic or have had four years equivalent experience in the trade.

Examination announcement giving details and information as to qualification requirements and necessary forms to file may be obtained from Central Post Office or the executive secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, U. S. Naval Weapons Plant, Washington, D. C.

Navy, Police Team Up

IMPERIAL BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Women of St. Mary's-by-the Sea Episcopal Church put on a charity fashion show only after an assist from police and the Navy. With models ready and 300 women waiting, the sound system quit. Police Chief Charles W. McIntire, whose wife was a model, dispatched a police car—with siren and red lights—to the Navy's Ream Field, where a sound system was obtained. The show went on.

South's Good Day With Careful Play

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

With 16 points, South has an opening no-trump bid whether he plays 15-17 or 16-18, and North has a raise to three in either system.

Most hands are given the same treatment in both, with the 15-17 having the advantage of a great many more no-trump openings, since there are three times as many 15 as 18-point hands.

The play at three no-trump requires a little care. If South ducks the first spade, East will hold the trick with the queen and shift to a heart which will beat the hand.

If South wins the trick and takes the wrong finesse first, both finesses subsequently lose (they do), West will bring in his long spades.

Hence, South must win the opening trick in dummy and take the diamond finesse. West will win and probably clear his spades but it won't do him any good.

South will lose the club finesse to East but East won't have a spade to lead to his partner and South will be able to make three tricks in each minor suit in addition to his ace of hearts and ace-king of spades.

Of Many Things

New Book on Children

"If I were a child again this very minute, what would I want from my parents?" This is the important question Dr. Frances R. Horwich, popularly known as Miss Frances of Ding Dong School, asks in the opening chapter of her new book, "The Magic of Bringing Up Your Child." It will be published by McGraw-Hill on September 9. Her answers to this question are the bases for her advice to parents on rearing happy children —they describe the basic needs, desires and feelings of children as they grow up.

These are the things that Dr. Horwich would want:

1. I would want to know that my parents love me, that they really want me, that they're glad I'm theirs, that I "belong."

2. I would want to know that they enjoy me, that they like playing and working with me, and that they know I am not a bad child but a good child who sometimes does things he shouldn't.

3. I would want to have as much family fun as possible, the wholesome and happy experience of doing all sorts of things together.

4. I would want my parents to guide me concurrently in all areas of my development—mental, physical, social, religious, and educational.

5. I would want to know that their discipline of me has rules, that the rules afe firm but not rigid, and are really and truly meant to help me.

"Love and affection, respect, fun, guidance, and wise discipline are basic needs of all children, the guiding truth for parents who want to enjoy their children and who want their children to enjoy them, the world, and life," Dr. Horwich continues.

Every week thousands of parents write to Miss Frances asking her questions about their children. Her fan mail from parents averages 8,000 letters a week. The questions cover a wide range, yet many different parents bring up the same questions. Here are some of the questions Miss Frances has included in her book—

How can we teach our child to behave well when we visit friends who have no children he can play with?

Our child doesn't seem to like people, not even other children, and prefers to be alone. Is this abnormal?

Why does our son say "I can't" when he really can?

When should we give our child an allowance?

How can I get all my housework done and play with my boy too?

What qualifications should we look for in a baby sitter?

Is it important that we play with our child?

My husband can't spend much time with our son because of his job schedule. What can he do about it?

Our child has little interest in books or reading. Is this abnormal?

Why do some children lie?

A new baby is on the way. How should we tell our child?

"For centuries the child was thought of as a miniature adult. From this point of view, if he did wrong it was evil—something deliberate which had to be whaled out of him. He had to learn through fear, misery, and heartbreak," writes Dr. Horwich. "Yet parents in all those centuries loved their children, and thought they were doing the right thing. They could not understand why, when they did so much for them, the children were not happy, loving, grateful and good."

"Perhaps it was these parents who, long ago, created the good fairy and the bad fairy," she continues. "The good fairy made magic for the child, the bad fairy made magic against the child. So the child himself was not actually wicked; it all depended on which fairy happened to have the upper hand, or the stronger magic. That way, too, the parents didn't feel so guilty."

"And perhaps it was these children, adult but remembering, who created stories in which they went out to slay ogres and dragons, trying to show their parents that they were Somebodies."

"There is magic still in bringing up children—in fact, more than ever," writes Frances Horwich. "It is a better magic than any conceived of by our bewildered ancestors, because it works. This magic does not come from any outside agency, but from within."

Dr. Horwich has received more than sixty awards and citations for her work in Ding Dong School as well as for her other contributions. She has taught and lectured at the University of California, Northwestern University, University of North Carolina, and many others. Northwestern University has established the Frances R. Horwich Scholarships.

Since August 1957 Ding Dong School has originated in Chicago and was seen only in the midwest area. However, on September 7 it will be returning to the national scene via videotape syndication. It has been sold to 66 stations throughout the United States.

WHEN A GUEST BREAKS SOMETHING

Dear Mrs. Post: If a guest breaks something while visiting in someone's house, shouldn't she make some attempt to replace the broken article?

Answer: Whenever the broken article can be replaced by an exact duplicate, it should be. But this is not always possible, either because the item would be too expensive for the guest to replace, or a duplicate is not to be found. A substitute might be acceptable if the broken article was an odd dish or an ash tray or a vase or a figurine, but if it belong to a dinner set, let's say, then an unmatching piece would not do at all. In any case, the guest having told the owner how distressed she is, and having done what she could toward replacing the broken article, should then try not to worry herself sick about something that her hostess surely realizes she did not mean to do.

Her Place in a Taxi

Dear Mrs. Post: Several friends and I have been discussing the following matter and would like your help. When a man and woman get into a taxi, should she take her place on the right hand side, or move to the far side? It seems to me that it would be better for her to take her place on the far side so that the man does not have to walk in front of her to take his place.

Answer: In the small taxis that are now almost the only ones to be found, it is practically necessary for the woman to slide herself over to the far side because of the extreme difficulty her companion would have in passing in front of her.

At Home Card

Dear Mrs. Post: When one received an "at home" card enclosed with a wedding announcement, what does this mean?

Answer: It means that the address given is where the bride and groom will live. If the card also includes a date this means that on and after it they will be glad to see their friends.

Phoenicia Gives Fine Interpretation To Anne Frank Story

The well known story of Anne Frank and the desolate years her family spent hiding from the Nazi policemen, was given a fine, sensitive interpretation at Phoenicia Playhouse Wednesday night.

The play opens with the Mr. Frank, the father, played very capably by Dan Legant, visiting the attic where the family hid. The story unfolds in flash-backs. Leona Van Zandt as the mother was properly quiet and tolerant of all inconveniences. She displayed the necessary fire and excitement when it is discovered that Mr. Van Daan, played by George Martin, is stealing bread during the night.

The difficult role of Anne Frank was handled skillfuly by Suzanne Harvey, who made her debut this week at Phoenicia Playhouse.

The play concerns itself only with that part of life in the attic up until the time when the Frank family and their friends are discovered. It shows there were gay moments mingled with fear as well. It is an expert dramatization done by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett.

Also appearing in the play were Lee Owens as Miep, one of the persons helping the Frank family to hide; Elizabeth Moore as Mrs. Van Daan whose fur coat represents the better things in life she left behind; Peter Van Daan, the son, played by Gerry Goodstein; Karen Cross as Margot Frank, Anne's sister; and Howard London as Mr. Dussel, another benefactor.

The play, which is presented in two acts, has excellent settings by Robert Soule. Adrian Hall is the director.

About the Stars

Suzanne Harvey appeared earlier this season as Anne at the Allenberg Playhouse in Pennsylvania and then more recently as Margot in Francis Lederer's production in Detroit. In New York Miss Harvey has appeared off-Broadway in "The Purification," "Blood Wedding," "Lower Depths." Miss Harvey is also a model and has modeled for some of the country's leading stores. She has studied with Michael Howard and the Ballet Theatre.

Dan Legant is a co-producer and resident actor from the theatre's inception three years ago and has appeared in almost all productions. He is a native New Yorker who studied at Brigham Young University in Utah and in New York at the Dramatic Workshop. He also studied with Miriam Goldina. In New York he has appeared on TV in the "Mama" series and off-Broadway in "Another Part of the Forest," "Time of Your Life," "The Purification," "Candida," and "Fox in a Fox."

Elizabeth Moore has come to Phoenicia from a recent production of "Diary of Anne Frank which was done in Detroit with Francis Lederer. Prior to this she won critical acclaim for her part in Mr. Hall's production of "A Trip to Bountiful." Last year at the playhouse, she delighted patrons as Eileen's sister, Ruth in "My Sister Eileen."

George Martin, a resident member of the Playhouse company has been with the group three seasons. He first appeared in the opening production of "Teahouse of the August Moon." Mr. Martin is a native New Yorker who started his acting career at the early age of 18. He has appeared on Broadway in "Black Chiffon" and off-Broadway in "Time of Your Life."

Howard London has the combined talents of producer, stage manager and actor. Mr. London has acted with some of show businesses most illustrious names —Tallulah Bankhead, Eve Arden, Gypsy Rose Lee and Henry Morgan. He appeared in several productions last year and this year has been seen in "Summer and Smoke," "Auntie Mame," and "Macbeth."

Art Display

The artwork displayed in the lobby and auditorium is by members of the Kaaterskill Group of Woodstock. Artists include Gwen Davies, Agnes Hart, Philip Held, Anne Helioff, Herbert Lent, Ethel Leventhal, Eleanore Lockspeiser, Ben Meyers, Judson Smith, George Wardlaw, Florence Weinstein and Ralph Wickiser.

Next Week

The play that took New York, London, Paris, the world, by storm will be presented at Phoenicia Playhouse next week. It is "Pygmalion," the story of Eliza Doolittle, a London cockney waif who is transformed into one of London's well-mannered ladies through the magic touch of Henry Higgins, scholar, linguist and egomaniac.

Playing Miss Doolittle, will be the popular Ann Hamilton.

'Birth of Nation' Booked for Sharon

SHARON, CONN.—A special matinee attraction at The Sharon Playhouse, Sharon, Conn., Saturday, August 15, at 2:30 p. m. will be D. W. Griffith's famous silent motion picture, "The Birth of a Nation." Starring Lillian Gish and Henry B. Walthall with a cast of thousands including such old-time stars as Mae Marsh, Wallace Reid and Donald Crisp, this story of the Civil War and turbulent years of the Recontruction has made cinematic history.

It comes from the private collection of old films owned by Broadway actor John Griggs. The film will be shown in its original uncut version with a brilliant added sound score and an introduction by Mr. Griggs.

Griffith introduced many new film procedures with this picture. He used all the known techniques at the time and invented many of his own that have remained in use to this day. He was the first to take action shots from a moving truck, to use long distance shots (the battle scenes are reminiscent of Matthew Brady's celebrated Civil War photographs), or to use action shots in extreme close-up. He also first devised the iris, the mask, and split screen shots, among others, in this remarkable film.

Tickets for this attraction are now available at the boxoffice. Theatre parties may be arranged by contacting Maurice Geoffrey at the Sharon Playhouse.

Pageant of Drums Aug. 22 Features Five-Time Champ

Winners of five national championships, the Lt. Norman Prince Drum Corps of Boston, Mass., will be one of the five featured corps at the second annual Pageant of Drums scheduled August 22 at 8 p. m. in Dietz Stadium.

Sponsored by Joyce-Schirick Post 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars and its drum corps—the Red Devils—the marching and musical spectacle offers $2,250 in awards for the top units.

Tickets on Sale

Tickets are on sale at the camera department in the Montgomery Ward store; Kolts Toy Center, Broadway and Foxhall Avenue, and the Wallace Company in Poughkeepsie.

Lt. Norman Prince Post No. 1506 has captured five VFW national championships — in 1946, 1948, 1949, 1953 and 1955. They finished second four other years.

When the post was founded, the Republic of France, through the French consul in Boston, presented the post with the tricolors of that country in memory of Lt. Norman Prince, a native of Boston, who was one of the founders of the famous Escadrille Americaine, later known as the Lafayette Flying Squadron.

When the United States entered the war, this squadron carried the first American Flag that appeared on any battlefield in World War 1.

Corps Is Colorful

The flag has been carried with permission by the Boston Corps since its inception in 1946. The Princemen are one of the most colorful marching units in New England and boast a tremendous horn section, which has brought them numerous awards in drum corps competitions.

"With the Reilly Raiders of Philadelphia and Lt. Norman Prince competing in our pageant, we have two of the finest corps in the east," Leslie (Bud) Munson, general chairman, said today, "and the brisk ticket sale indicates that residents of Kingston area are anxious to see them again in a local competition."

Children Are Swept To Death by Undertow

PETOSKEY, Mich. (AP)—Two young brothers and their sister were swept to their deaths by an undertow Wednesday while wading in Lake Michigan.

Drowned were Connie Paige, 9, and her brothers Wayne, 8, and Gary, 7.

Judy Clark, 11, told state police the youngsters were wading fully clothed in about two feet of water when a big wave rolled in. She said all three were knocked off their feet and swept out into the bay.

Away From Public

Attention: Brides-to-be!

Finally right within earshot, there has opened an exclusive bridal shop in the heart of the uptown Wall Street shopping area—and we mean exclusive—judging by the brides from Kingston's finest families patronizing the store. It is named Doreen's, and is located between the luggage shop and Scott's at 295 Wall Street.

If you go to other bridal shops, you may, if you're lucky, be shown 4 or 5 styles. Doreen believes that a bride should have at least 20 styles to select from in bridal gowns, and 40 styles to choose from in bridesmaid's dresses.

So . . . . that's exactly what you'll see when you phone Doreen for an evening appointment, or drop in any day from 10 to 5.

And remember that Doreen's custom department can outfit a complete wedding in less than three weeks, in case groom-to-be gets an earlier furlough.

Bridesmaid's dresses start at $25.00 and range from $29.95 to $35.00 up. Informal and formal wedding gowns are $35.00 to $99.50, to $150.00 up.—Advt.

Reports That Most Communists Are Back Across Line

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The Laotian government reported today that most of the Communist forces that infiltrated into northern Laos from North Viet Nam have withdrawn across the border.

Col. Phoumi Nosavan, secretary of state for defense, told a news conference the Reds left behind about 1,000 men, most of them Black Thai tribesmen or members of the Communist Pathet Lao movement of Laotians which formerly controlled the two northern provinces of Sam Neua and Phong Saly.

He predicted the next attacks would come in the dry season, from October to December.

The Communists began withdrawing five days ago on orders from North Viet Nam, Phoumi claimed, after the Laotian government had dispatched reinforcements and the local population had supported the government instead of the Reds.

The Communists first attacked Laos border posts three weeks ago.

Despite the military lull, the Communists kept up a propaganda barrage, charging that the United States is trying to convert Laos into a military base threatening Red China and North Viet Nam.

Peiping declared the situation in the Indochina kingdom "has worsened and become more grave."

Dies of Burns

NEWBURGH, N. Y. (AP) — Joseph Cevasco, 63-year-old farmer, died at St. Luke's Hospital today of burns suffered when an automobile collided with his truck Tuesday near New Windsor.

The driver of the car, Airman 2 C. Harold Jagers, 22, stationed at Stewart Air Force Base, was killed.

Can't Close Station Casey Made Famous

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The Mississippi Public Service Commission has turned down a railroad request to close the station where Casey Jones crashed into immortality 59 years ago.

The commission ruled against the Illinois Central's petition to discontinue service at Vaughn on the grounds that the station was losing money. The commission held the service was needed to attract industry.

Casey Jones made the Yazoo County town famous when he wrecked his train in trying to make up time on the run from Memphis, Tenn., to Jackson, Miss.

Countess Adios Sets Track Mark

Countess Adios, victor in the $36,914.80 Devotion Stake at Roosevelt Raceway, holds a track record of 2:02 2-5 for the mile today.

This time was the fastest ever clocked at Roosevelt for a 2-year-old pacer on a half-mile track The former record was 2:02 3-5 set by Torpid.

Countess Adios, driven by Del Miller, led from the start in scoring a two-length victory in the non-betting event Wednesday. Jan Hanover was second, Tammy Hanover third.

Saratoga Raceway paid a massive daily double, $1,041, on victories by Directress ($53.40), a trotter, and Windale Bonnie Boy ($8.60) a pacer, in the first and second races. Both races were photo finishes. The all-time record daily-double at the track was the $1,886 payoff hit during the 1946 fall meeting.

Saratoga Raceway — Victory Lind ($3.50) won $3,000 Burlington Pace in 2:06 1-5.

Vernon Downs — Mrs. Buttonwood ($5) won Class A pace in 2:02 1-5.

Batavia Downs — Hoot Newport ($11) won Class A-AA pace in 2:03 2-5

Think It Through

E. F. HUTTON
THE STEEL STRIKE

Until the steelworkers went on strike, they were getting 84c an hour more than the average manufacturing employee.

So the highest paid large group of employees in the country struck for still more.

Who pays? As every wage increase is another man's cost, the bill will be largely paid by lower paid workers, or by their wives at the stores, or by rising unemployment.

E. F. Hutton

Reading between the lines, it appears that the steel companies were willing to give this high-paid group another wage increase provided the companies were permitted to eliminate the featherbedding which prevents efficient steel management from reducing costs.

But the steelworkers union refused.

If the steel strike lasts 6-8 weeks, or more, other industries will have to lay off tens of thousands of workers in the lower wage group. Railroad workers and iron and coal miners will be among the first to be laid off. Then unemployment will spread in the metalworking factories, and so on.

All for the benefit of one large group averaging $3.64 an hour in wages and benefits.

If this were a strike of the poorest paid workers in America, it would be a different picture.

Steel wages and prices are already pricing themselves out of our export markets.

Somebody is being short-changed.

Plastic Surgeon Says Jap Beauty Given Injection

TOKYO (AP)—A Tokyo plastic surgeon said today he gave a bust-enlarging plastic injection to Akiko Kojima before she won the Miss Japan and Miss Universe contests.

"Miss Kojima is just one of many such Japanese beauties who received plastic surgeon's treatments. A number of famous Japanese actresses also received similar operations," Dr. Toshizo Matsui said in an interview.

He confirmed a Tokyo newspaper report that Miss Kojima, a Tokyo fashion model had liquid plastic injected into her bosom at Matsui's hospital.

A spokesman for the newspaper Sankei Shimbun, sponsor of the Miss Japan contest, said the report is unfounded. "We have seen her for the past four years, and there was no need for her to get bust surgery of any kind," he said. "We are still studying the report."

The doctor said the 24-year-old beauty came to his clinic a short time before the Miss Japan contest in June. He said he didn't measure her bust, but when she won the Universe title in Long Beach, Calif., last month her statistics were 37-23-38.

Miss Kojima is due here Friday.

The newspaper Sports Nippon reported: "The operation is simple but painful. A coffee cupful of liquid plastic is injected into the bosom. In order not to injure the bosom, the injection is done by one shot. The operation takes only one hour with local anesthetics. When the anesthetic wears off, the part aches."

Skipper's Retrial Is Postponed to Aug. 25

HONOLULU (AP) —The retrial of Earl L. Reynolds, skipper of the nuclear protest yacht Phoenix, was postponed Wednesday until Aug. 25.

The retrial originally was set for Aug. 17 in Federal District Court.

Judge J. Frank McLaughlin said he feared the case might run past Aug. 21, when President Eisenhower is expected to proclaim Hawaii a state. When that happens the two present federal judges must leave the bench.

Reynolds was convicted last year of intentionally sailing the Phoenix into the Pacific H-bomb test area in defiance of an Atomic Energy Commission ban.

The conviction was thrown out last June by the U. S. Court of Appeals in San Francisco, which ruled McLaughlin erred in not allowing Reynolds to represent himself in the case.

Carthage Stone Not in Monument As Secure Piece

WASHINGTON (AP) — What they found in the Washington Monument is embarrassing both the housekeeping and historical branches of the government.

It's a 200-pound block of marble. As big as a suitcase, it has lain unnoticed in a corner of a stair well for something like 80 years. Workmen found it when they installed a new elevator several months ago.

The big stone is apparently one of 189 sent from different states, countries and societies when the monument was being built during the last century—the job took 36 years, being finished in 1884.

This one is inscribed "Carthage," and sure enough, one of the gift stones was from the ruins of ancient Carthage—donated by an individual. Only trouble is it was supposed to have been built into the monument with the other 188, and guide books list it there.

Why it wasn't is something Edmund J. Fitzgerald, superintendent and historian of the monument can only guess. He thinks it probably just got lost during the two decades between 1860 and 1880 when no work was done on the monument.

What's he going to do with it now? He doesn't have the answer to that, either.

Two Charges Are Prepared on Cruel Home Treatment

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Prosecutor O. H. Roberts Jr. said today he had prepared two charges involving operation of the Evansville Comfort Nursing Home where the Vanderburgh County grand jury reported patients' toenails were pulled out "as punishment for alleged misconduct."

The prosecutor declined to elaborate on the charges until warrants are served.

Roberts said Harold Barnes and his wife, Viola, are still operating the home although their state license expired July 1. The prosecutor said the couple failed to file a renewal application within the required period but since had filed one, which is pending.

He said he did not know how many patients are in the home now but relatives had removed several during the grand jury investigation.

Mrs. Barnes said the accusations are untrue.

The jury report said also that patients were punished for bed wetting "by pouring a disinfectant upon parts of their bodies."

The report did not say how many patients were punished.

Bar Says Security Is Not Endangered

CHICAGO (AP) — The security of the United States has not been endangered by any Supreme Court decision, says the American Bar Assn. Committee on the Bill of Rights in a report made public Wednesday.

The ABA's Committee on Communist Tactics, Strategy and Objectives had referred to the court decisions as "illustrative of how our security has been weakened." A resolution, based on the report and adopted by the ABA House of Delegates in February, did not contain that phrase.

State's Parimutuel Take Is $12,504,049

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The state collected $12,504,049 in parimutuel tax revenue from the 54-day summer race meeting at Belmont Park.

The state also picked up $10,664 from the harness meeting at Goshen July 6 to July 11.

The State Tax Department reported the income Wednesday.

The tax return from Belmont last summer was $10,716,601.

The department said the Belmont meeting this summer drew 1,298,913 fans who bet a total of $120,148,691. The average handle per bettor was $92.50.

The Goshen meeting attracted 8,735 fans who bet $195,882. Last year, 7,079 turned out and bet $176,742.

Navy Plays Cupid To Aid Science

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — The Navy is planning to get a husband for Miss Baker, the half - pound monkey which made history as one of the country's first space travelers.

And a brand new home is being built here for the prospective couple—a home that is swank enough for a honeymoon cottage, though not much larger than a couple of telephone booths.

But the Navy's cupid - playing role is largely scientific rather than romatnic.

The "marriage" was disclosed today to a reporter checking on the status and future prospects of the tiny, goggle - eyed squirrel monkey that survived a 1,700-mile-long, 360-mile - high, 10,000-mile-an-hour ride through space May 28.

The Navy is interested in a romance for Miss Baker because scientists at the Naval School of Aviation Medicine here want to find out if the moneky's space flight could result in "any abnormalities in reproduction" due to possible radiation exposure.

The room being prepared for Miss Baker and her bridegroom is seven feet wide, five feet deep and seven and one-half feet high. Th walls and ceiling are coverd with formica; there is a tile floor; and there will be special lighting and air conditioning.

It looks like a young bride's dream.

Kids Dog Show Winners Named

The Ken-L-Ration Kids Dog Shows sponsored annually by the Kingston Recreation Department were conducted in the various city parks the past few days. Representation in all shows was very good with the children who participated with their dogs all receiving awards valuable to dog owners.

Each show had 8 classifications including the best of show. Best of show was won by the following:

Block Park — Christine Callahan, Millers Lane Extension, with Schaatzie.

Hasbrouck Park — Ida Woerner, 71 Hasbrouck Avenue with Candy.

Forsyth Park — Arthur Beaubier, 185 Green Street with King.

Hutton Park — Tamara Rossi, 164 Highland Avenue with Pepe.

Cornell Park — Linda Bailey, 63 West Union Street with Slippers.

The winners and runners-up in all classifications are eligible for the grand finals at Forsyth Park, Aug. 19 at 2 p. m. where many additional awards will be given to the winners of the different classifications.

27th Fighter Squadron Moving to Loring, Me.

ROME, N. Y. (AP) — The Air Force is transferring the 27th Fighter Interceptor Squadron from Griffiss Air Force Bases here to Loring AFB in Maine.

The Air Force said Wednesday the move, involving 300 officers and airmen, was part of a realignment of Northeast air defenses.

Griffiss has another figher interceptor squadron, the 49th, whose job it is to protect Strategic Air Command units now moving into the base.

Steal Golf Equipment

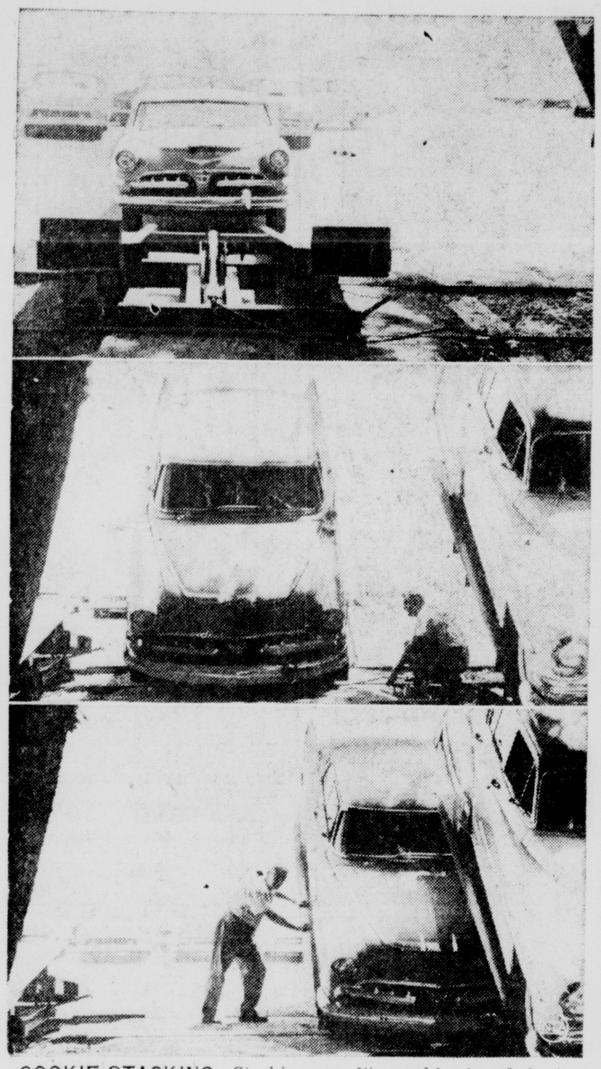

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y. (AP)—Burglars stole $4,500 worth of golf equipment Wednesday from the Saranac Lake Golf Club and the clubhouse at Saranac Inn.

The thieves broke windows to get into the buildings.

Murder Indictment In Fire Dropped

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP) — A murder indictment against Jane Ann Shusko, 15, has been dropped and she has been transferred to children's court.

Her brother and six of her sisters died July 11 in a fire that police said she admitted setting in her house.

Justice Floyd E. Anderson of State Supreme Court signed the transfer order and dismissed the seven-count indictment Wednesday. The grand jury had recommended this because of Jane Ann's age and "circumstances surrounding the case." The jury did not elaborate on the circumstances.

Dies of Injuries

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Joseph A. Jones, 52, who was injured July 30 when he fell 20 feet from a scaffold, died Wednesday night at a hospital. He worked for the Rochester Gas & Electric Corp.

Ex-Convict Says Bloeth Got Guns, Denial Is Made

ISLIP, N. Y. (AP)—An ex-convict pal of Francis H. Bloeth says he sold Bloeth a .32 caliber revolver and a .32 caliber automatic which authorities believe were used in Suffolk County's three recent holdup slayings.

Confronting Bloeth Wednesday in Bay Shore headquarters of the Suffolk County district attorney was Robert Walsh, 21. Walsh, pointing at Bloeth, said:

"That's the guy I sold the guns to."

Calls Him Liar

The 27-year-old Bloeth looked Walsh squarely in the eye and replied: "And you're a God-damned liar." Walsh has offered to take a lie detector test to prove he was telling the truth.

On the basis of his own story, Walsh was charged with violation of the Sullivan (anti-weapons) law.

Walsh said he sold the revolver to Bloeth six months ago, and the automatic to him only four hours before the third slaying.

Suffolk Dist. Atty. John P. Cohalan said Walsh had served time for burglary and for an attack on an Islip policeman.

Says He Returned Gun

Bloeth's lawyer, Sidney R. Siben, quoted his client as saying that he borrowed a revolver from Walsh but returned it before the July 31 murder of Islip grocer Hans Hachman, 54,—the first of three holdup killings which netted less than $400.

The other victims were Lawrence Kirchner, 53, a counterman shot to death Aug. 5 in a Smithtown diner, and Mrs. Irene Currier, 50, of West Yaphank, shot down by a bandit Aug. 8 in a diner she operated.

In all three cases the victims were alone.

Weapons Not Found

The murder weapons have not been found, but tests show the first two killings were committed with a .32 caliber revolver and the third with a .32 caliber automatic.

Bloeth, picked up last Monday night on a tip, was held without bail on charges of robbing a tavern of $60 on July 22, a crime not connected with the slayings.

It was disclosed Wednesday that two empty gun holsters were found in a garbage can at Bloeth's home in Islip Terrace. Mrs. Bloeth was quoted as saying one of the holsters was bought to hold a water pistol belonging to their daughter, Karen. Karen is seven months old.

Bloeth's wife, Jane, and his mother, Mrs. Mary Bloeth, said that Bloeth suffered head injuries from a fall as a boy and that he frequently blacked out. His last "blackout," they said, occurred about two months ago when the family was driving from New York City to Suffolk.

Quakers Calling On States to Cut Out Death Penalty

NEW YORK (AP) — A Quaker group has appealed to the governors of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Vermont for abolishment of the death penalty.

The Quakers said in letters to the governors that the taking of human life is incompatible with the teachings of Christ and The New Testament.

The appeal was made Wednesday by the New York Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, which has members in all four states.

Cabbie Shot, Crashes Into New York Bus

Police said Trapman, a resident of The Bronx, may have been shot by a holdup man. He was hit in the right side.

State Police Probe Spring Glen Entry

Ellenville State Police today investigated a burglary which was reported at Howie's Bar at Spring Glen.

Corporal N. G. Lecakes said Trooper John Metzer of the BCI was assigned to the case, after Howie Weiss, the bar proprietor reported the establishment had been entered.

George Reynolds, an employe, discovered the burglary when he opened the bar for business on Wednesday. Loot taken by the thief consisted of $5 in pennies, taken from an open cash register drawer, two boxes of cigars, a bottle of whiskey and one box of steaks.

Why Invite Khrushchev?

No More Cards Remain To Play in Diplomacy

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — What's behind President Eisenhower's invitation to Premier Nikita Khrushchev to visit him in the United States?

One thing is sure: This meeting will delay a showdown on Berlin where the Soviet Union has threatened to force Allied troops out of the city.

Couldn't Get Worse

The diplomatic situation could not get worse. There aren't any more cards to play. Eisenhower wants to get something moving, although he hopes no one will expect miracles.

Only two roads to the future are open:

1. Either you go along the road of the armaments race by which you defeat yourself or end up with the cataclysm of war, or—
2. You try the road of mediation in the hope some way can be found to solve problems.

The President and the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles had talked many times about the idea of inviting the Soviet leader to the United States. They agreed it might be done when it would serve a useful purpose.

Timing Major Concern

Dulles, however, was concerned about the effect on the Allies and other nations. Timing was a key consideration. Then last February British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan went to Moscow to see Khrushchev. Dulles thought this took him and Eisenhower off the hook and they now could invite Khrushchev any time.

(While it is difficult to look upon a meeting between the top men in governments — such as Eisenhower and Khrushchev — as anything but a summit meeting, Eisenhower seems to consider it just an informal gettogether.

(He repeatedly has talked of a summit meeting as one which, in addition to himself and Khrushchev, would include heads of the American allies: Britain and France.)

Has Modest Hopes

The President has very modest hopes for any concrete results from Khrushchev's visit here. He considers him woefully ignorant about the United States. But Eisenhower has four main objectives in inviting him:

1. To get him to understand more accurately what the United States is.

At his news conference Wednesday, for instance, the President explained he would like to take Khrushchev on a helicopter flight over Washington to show him the thousands of small homes around Washington, homes like the model on display at the American fair in Moscow.

Skeptical About Cars

The President would also like Khrushchev to see the parking lot at the Willow Run auto plant because he didn't believe it when Vice President Richard M. Nixon told him there were 60 million cars in this country.

2. The President would like to improve the climate of international relations in the hope there can be some productive negotiations with him.

He considered as hopeless the many weeks of negotiations this summer at Geneva between the American - British - French - Soviet foreign ministers on Berlin, where Khrushchev has threatened to force the Allied troops out.

Eisenhower looked upon the foreign ministers and their governments — in their performance at Geneva — as handcuffed and chained to a wall: they couldn't move. Eisenhower wants to see this situation changed.

He would like to see the foreign ministers get back to negotiating but next time with some hope of success.

Will Talk Things Over

(He emphasizes he and Khrushchev won't negotiate but just talk things over. He seems fixed on the idea that negotiations should be carried out by ministers. Some people feel any Eisenhower-Khrushchev talks are in effect negotiations.)

3. Eisenhower hopes that in his meeting with Khrushchev that Khrushchev may come up with some new ideas, if he has any, on the Berlin situation. The President will be receptive to new ideas and he will listen to them.

But then he will discuss them with this country's allies. He regards his meeting with Khrushchev as a probing operation.

4. In this upcoming meeting Eisenhower hopes to use his prestige to demonstrate to the rest of the world and particularly the uncommitted countries that the United States is actively seeking peaceful solutions of world problems.

If the Soviets try to create an impression a deal was being made between him and Khrushchev, Eisenhower will not hesitate to issue a public denial.

Eisenhower (this is the stand he has taken for months) is prepared to go to a summit meeting only if there is real hope based on prior progress. He thinks it possible that enough may come of his meeting with Khrushchev to warrant a summit meeting before he goes to Moscow later this year to return Khrushchev's visit.

Special Gifts Chairman Named For Chest Drive

Appointment of G. Herbert DeKay of 272 Manor Avenue as chairman of the special gifts division in this fall's Red Feather drive was announced today by W. Henry Haltermann, general chairman.

DeKay is employed by Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation as a special representative. He is past president of the board of directors of the YMCA, a former vice president of the Kingston Area Community Chest, Inc., and has held leadership positions in all previous Community Chest campaigns. He is a past president of the Kiwanis Club.

The special gifts division is responsible for contacting individuals whose past gifts have been pace-setters, who may need extra time for consideration of their gifts, and who would not ordinarily be contacted through other divisions.

Shoplifters Welcome

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—The sign in the window of a specialty shop read: Shoplifters Are Welcome But Please Don't Be Greedy. The owner reported to police that thieves broke in and stole $1,200 and 60 coats valued at $3,000.

SAUGERTIES NEWS

School District Taxes Are Payable On September 1

Saugerties Central School District tax bills will be mailed to area residents within the next 10 days, and are payable on September 1 to Collector Mrs. LeRoy Jacobsen of West Camp, at Main Street School Building.

The school tax rate is $71.60 per thousand on assessed valuation. Because of former debt, the tax rate in the Village of Saugerties will be $74.18, and in the former Glasco District, $77.02.

The basic tax rate of $71.60 is approximately $2 per thousand lower than was anticipated, because there has been an increase in assessed valuation in the school district since last year of approximately $300,000. An increase of only $100,000 was anticipated.

Saugerties School District residents in the Town of Ulster will pay a tax rate of $68.28 based on $1,000 assessed valuation, and district residents in the Town of Woodstock, $99.29. School officials pointed out that the rates are different in the Town of Ulster because property is assessed at a higher rate, while in the Town of Woodstock, it is assessed at a lower rate in its relation to true value.

Taxpayers will receive notices indicating dates, hours, and places of collection.

This fall the number of grades in the North Flatbush School will be reduced from six to four. The kindergarten pupils from North Flatbush will attend at Glasco; likewise, the fifth and sixth grade pupils. This will leave approximately 26 pupils in the first and second grade room in North Flatbush, which will be taught by Mrs. Katherine Wells. It will leave approximately 20 pupils in the third and fourth grade room, taught by Mrs. Leola Wilt.

The board discussed the advisability of planning for an additional new building in the district. The number of pupils now in the district indicates that in the year 1963-1964 there will be a local shortage of not fewer than 16 rooms. It is fully expected by the board that the new census figures which are not yet available will indicate an increase in the pupil population over the figures compiled last year on which the shortage of 16 rooms in 1963-1964 is based.

Census figures from last year show that the enrollment in the local schools will be at least 150 more this fall than last fall. This matter will be discussed at the next board meeting, and further consideration given to the question of whether it is desirable at this time to employ an architect to study building plans.

The voters in the Asbury District will have an opportunity on Wednesday 7:30 in the evening to vote on the question of whether they will close that school.

Donald Lansing, representing the architectural firm of Sargent - Webster - Crenshaw and Folley, was present at the meeting, and discussed with the board various building problems, including the road at the Glasco School; the sanitary sewer repair at the high school; sound proofing of the band room at the high school; and other related matters.

A committee representing the citizens of King's Village was present at the board meeting, and petitioned that the school buses drive into King's Village to pick up and discharge pupils.

The following members of the faculty who have served three years locally were approved by the board for placement on tenure: Mrs. Annie Anderson, teacher of the ungraded class in the Glasco School; Dean Bullock, teacher of the fourth and fifth grade and assistant principal in the Malden School; Miss English at the high school.

Approved by the firemen was the second reading of an amendment to the by-laws making it mandatory for each active fireman to attend at least six meetings per year to remain in active status and be eligible for exemption papers after serving five years.

The first reading of another amendment was approved which waives the initiation fee for applicant who is seeking active membership after he has received exemption papers from another recognized company.

M-WC Vols Form Dartball Team: Amend By-Laws

Malden-West Camp firemen approved the formation of a dartball team and heard readings on two amendments to its by-laws at the Tuesday night meeting of the vols at Malden fire station.

The new dartball team will be entered in Saugerties Dartball League which begins its season Monday, Sept. 14. The new team will play in West Camp firehouse.

The vols also gave permission to the West Camp Church team to use the West Camp hall for the early part of the season while St. Paul's Lutheran Church renovates its sanctuary.

President John J. Helfert appointed Assistant Chief Emmett Vedder to investigate the possibility of having wells drilled to provide water supply to each firehouse.

The building committee report given by Recording Secretary Harold W. Bennett indicated that the brick veneering of the Malden station will be started within 10 days. Luther Emerick reported that the roof on the West Camp station had been tarred.

The secretary is preparing a list of active firemen who have served the full five years with the company and are now seeking exemption papers. The investigating committee will check the status of those applying and present the report to the September meeting.

Calendars donated by Max Widmaier of Malden Auto Body Works arrived and will be distributed to business places in the district. The calendars contain the name of the fire company and the phone number for reporting fires.

Chief William R. Wrolsen reported on a communication received from the State Safety Commission which instructed all fire truck drivers that they must stop for school buses even if they are responding to a fire alarm. He also reported that the company had received its two-way radio call letters.

Assistant Chief Vedder reported on the company's recent fire alarm. He said the Malden unit responded to an alarm to extinguish a smoke fire at the home of Mrs. Francis L. Steenken of Malden. The firemen responding cleared the smoke. The extent of damage was not reported.

Mrs. Martha Linzey of West Camp was designated as winner of the award of the month.

Corresponding Secretary Carl Heese was instructed to write a letter to the Ladies Auxiliary asking them to reconsider their decision to disband the unit. President Helfert will attend the fall meeting of the unit to ask the women to reconsider.

Local CAP Hosts Mountain Group

Saugerties - Glasco Civil Air Patrol Squadron was host to the Catskill Mountain Group at its monthly meeting held early this week.

Lt. Col. Sandor Burger of the New York Wing made his official visit. Lt. Col. Burger serves in the capacity of inspector for the New York Wing of the CAP.

In his talk he explained the importance of the CAP organization to the U. S. Air Force and the millions of dollars it saves for the Air Force each year. He also spoke on a proposal by the Air Force to have aircraft manufacturers design a new type plane for CAP rescue work. A feature of the new type plane would be the minimum amount of space required for take-off and landings. He commended the county organization for its radio

C of C Delegation Attend SPA for Saugerties Trot

A delegation of Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce headed by its president Myron G. Banks accompanied Nancy Misasi, Miss Saugerties of 1960 and her attendants, Denise Rethier and Carole Larson to the running of the Saugerties Trot at Saratoga Raceway Monday night.

Lutheran Church Lists Activities

Coming activities at Atonement Evangelical Lutheran Church, Market Street, Saugerties, were announced today by the Rev. Walter Cowen, pastor.

The common service of the Lutheran Church will be conducted on Sunday Aug. 16 and 23 at 8 and 11 a. m. by the Rev. Hugh Whitaker. Pastor Whitaker is a native of Saugerties and the only son of Atonement to enter the Lutheran ministry. He is pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Oswego. He will bring the message for both Sundays and also be available for pastoral acts between August 16 and 30. He may be reached at the home of Mrs. Edward Baumann, Route 212. The phone is listed under his name.

For matters of special concern members may call Glenford Genthner, president of the church council at Corner Bakery, who will be advised of location of pastor available substitutes and all matters concerning the congregation.

The church council will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday, at the church. Plans were discussed for the Evangelism program, financial objectives for 1960, arrangements for confirmation instruction and plans for the choir.

The vacation Bible school which has been holding sessions daily from August 3 through 14, will hold its closing exercises Friday. Following the closing of the school, which will feature an exhibition of the work of the pupils, there will be a picnic luncheon for pupils and parents at Cantine Park.

Tuesday, Aug. 17 and Thursday, Aug. 19 from 6:30 p. m. will be special nights when the men of Atonement Church are asked to be at the parish house on Market Street to prepare the building for painting. Work will be done every night, but on Tuesday and Thursday special effort will be made to have good response from all, the pastor said.

Castro in Field Leading Hunt for Opposing Forces

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro led his troops in the field today, personally directing a roundup of counterrevolutionary holdouts.

The bearded Premier was reported to be in a mountainous area of Las Villas province 140 miles southeast of Havana. Authorities said revolutionary government troops had encircled a band of armed members of the conspiracy the Castro forces said they uncovered last week.

Castro flew to Cienfuegos Wednesday, then boarded a helicopter for the trip to the mountains between Cienfuegos and Trinidad. He was accompanied by Army chief Camilo Cienfuegos and Celia Sanchez, the Premier's secretary.

Castro forces continued to haul in persons for questioning about the alleged plot against the government which Castro's aides called a massive conspiracy. There still was no firm estimate of the number held, although Castro's brother Raul, commander in chief of the armed forces, several days ago put the figure at about 3,000.

2 Youths Sought By Troopers in Kerhonkson Theft

Two youths were being sought by Ellenville State Police today for questioning in connection with a burglary reported at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Lingley at Kerhonkson Tuesday afternoon.

State Police Corporal N. G. Lecakes of Ellenville said a strong box containing personal records, a will and a house deed, insurance policies and a jar containing an undetermined amount of pennies, was stolen.

Corporal Lecakes said two youths, traveling in a green car and believed to be magazine salesmen from Poughkeepsie, were seen in the vicinity of the Lingley home. One youth was described as 17 or 18 years of age, five feet, six inches tall, weighing about 110 pounds. The second youth was described as 16 to 17 years of age, ruddy complexion, buck teeth, weighing about 115 pounds.

Kaye Gains Semi-Finals at New Paltz

SPORTS

By CHARLES J. TIANO

Freeman Sports Editor

The Hobie Armstrong legend keeps popping up. At the state American Legion Junior baseball semi-final game at Dietz Stadium on Tuesday, William J. (Bill) Boehner(a 25-year veteran of the coaching ranks, talked with Ed Palladino about the great Kingston High football player who enters Harvard in September.

Boehner recently resigned as head coach at Vincentian Institute in Albany and certainly qualifies as a football expert.

Vincentian, you may recall, snapped the 20-game winning streak compiled by Kingston, when it held the Maroon to a 7-7 tie in a bruising battle last year at Hawkins Stadium in Albany. However, Armstrong scored the seven points when he ran 34 yards around end, then kicked the extra point.

In extolling the young man many experts rate the greatest broken field runner in KHS football history, Boehner said:

"Armstrong was gone once he got past the line of scrimmage." He said Hobie had such breakaway speed, that it was almost impossible to catch him. "He is one of the finest runners I have ever seen in high school," Boehner went on. His words can be taken at face value because in 15 years of coaching he has seen great backs come and go. The retiring coach leaves no doubt in anyone's mind that Armstrong will make the grade at Harvard and become a star.

"Another amazing thing about Hobie was that he was almost impossible to bring down. He was just great," Boehner concluded.

• Quotes From the Dugout

HOBIE LANDRITH, personable and articulate catcher of the San Francisco Giants: "Why do I go out to talk to our pitchers? Well, we certainly don't discuss the movies we've seen or where we take our wives for dinner. We talk business in a highly competitive sport. After all, the pitcher and catcher are the prime defensive factors. There is no action until the ball is hit. Why shouldn't the batterymen confer on the hill. The pitcher may have a better idea than I have. There should be voice communication, not just signals."

LEE MAYE—hard hitting outfielder, recently recalled by the Milwaukee Braves:

"To make good, all I have to do is swing the bat and catch everything that comes my way."

• Flotsam and Jetsam:

Tenpins are finally invading the Boston area, traditional hotbed of duckpins, barrel pins and candlepins. AMF Automatic Spotters are being installed as follows: Lynn, 42 alleys; Natick, 24 alleys; Malden, 24 alleys; Boston, 24 alleys. . . . AMF is also introducing tenpins to the Belgians for the first time this fall. Les Exploitations of Brussels, operator of a chain of motion picture theatres in Belgium, will invest $800,000 in three bowling centers; in Knocke le Zpute, well known Belgian seaside resort, Brussels and Antwerp. . . . Louis A. Wehle, chairman of the Board of the Genesee brewing company, has purchased the Elk Horn Ranch at Greybull, Wyoming. Elk Horn Ranch was established by Col. Torey, one of Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders after the Spanish-American War and is one of the oldest and best cow ranches in the Big Horn Basin. It is located 19 miles northeast of Greybull, in one of the most scenic parts of the west. The ranch controls 25,000 acres, with elevations ranging from 5,000 feet in the valley to 10,000 feet in the Big Horn Mountains and is presently stocked with 600 head of cattle. It is described as great elk and buffalo country.

THEY SAID IT COULD BE DONE and ancient Archie Moore went out and did it last night. His stunning three-round knockout of Yvon Durelle, the willing but futile fisherman, was serious setback for youth. And Mr. Moore, 43 going on 47, has to rate as one of the ring marvels of all the ages.

Baron Team Gets Big Upset Win

Marty Kaye of Kingston turned back the challenge of Dick Bonner, rising young Poughkeepsie star, 6-3, 6-2, to move into the semi-finals of the Hudson River Valley tennis tournament Wednesday at New Paltz.

Sharing the spotlight with Kaye's victory in a thumping match was the Kingston-Poughkeepsie tandem of George Baron and Bill Alexander which upset the high ranking combine of Dick Strain and Ed Miller in a thrilling, three-set match, 6-4, 2-6, and 7-5.

The Baron-Alexander triumph over the Strain-Miller combine came after the latter had eliminated the No. 1 seeded doubles squad of Mal Nelson and Al Sylveter of Poughkeepsie.

Herman Folkerts of Phoenicia and Tom Higgins, former Oklahoma state singles champion now stationed at Stewart Air Force Base, upended the Poughkeepsie brother team of Ed Gardella and Larry Gardella, 6-3, 6-1.

Krajna Advances

Gordie Krajna, New Paltz State Teachers College star, and Steve Banks defeated Ike Boone and Bob Magill of Poughkeepsie, 6-3, 6-1, then eliminated Folkerts and Higgins, 6-2, 6-1 to move into the semi-finals.

Kaye's superior experience proved the difference in his tense match with Bonner, who holds the Central New York singles crown. Marty's had more all-round confidence and jarred Bonner with superb placements in the first set.

Both played to the backhand in the second set, but Kaye was able to maneuver more adroitly. The score belies the closeness of the contest which held the rapt attention of a large audience.

Bonner teamed with Dr. Sam Simon of Poughkeepsie to eliminate the Kingston tandem of Dick Little and Dick Smith, 6-3, 6-1.

Feature singles match today is the 7 p. m. clash between Ed Mills, the Princeton ace and Kingston finalist, and Krajna.

'Realistic' Dates Set For New Hunting Season

ALBANY — New York's hunters will take to the woods early this Fall — October 5 — for ruffled grouse, woodcock and squirrels but they'll wait three weeks until October 26, when crops are mostly harvested, before taking to the farmer's fields for pheasants and cottontail rabbits. That's what Conservation Commissioner Harold G. Wilm said today in announcing what he termed realistic dates for the coming hunting season.

"The October fifth opening for such woodland game as grouse, woodcock and squirrels is two weeks earlier than usual, "Commissioner Wilm said. "That's mainly to give the woodcock hunter a better break, especially in the northern counties which this frost-shunning migrant leaves early. But," he continued, "so early a state-wide opening for the farm game species of pheasants and cottontails isn't feasible. All crops aren't yet harvested especially in our best pheasant region — the Lake Plains counties. So we simply scheduled the woodland game for an early season and the farm game for a more equitable later opening."

Something Else New

Something else new will be tried this Fall [illegible] first time, Sunday pheasant hunting will be permitted [illegible] southeastern counties of Delaware, Greene, Orange, Rockland, Sullivan and Ulster. Elsewhere, pheasant hunting is taboo on the intervening Sundays of the Oct. 26-Nov. 14 state-wide (except Long Island) season. Hen pheasants as well as cocks will be legal in several Adirondack and eastern counties including two new ones, Orange and Schoharie.

Length of the seasons and the bag limits are about the same as last year.

SQUIRRELS — Oct. 5-Dec. 3; 5 per day and no season limit.

RUFFED GROUSE — Oct. 5-Dec. 3; 4 per day, 20 per season.

WOODCOCK — Oct. 5-Nov. 13; 4 per day, 8 in possession.

COCK PHEASANTS — Oct. 26-Nov. 14 with Sunday hunting prohibited EXCEPT in Delaware, Greene, Orange, Rockland, Sullivan and Ulster Counties; 2 per day, 8 per season.

HEN PHEASANTS — Oct. 26-Nov. 14 only in Clint., Essex, Frank., Herk., Lewis, Mont., St. L., Schen., Scho., Dela., Sull., Orange, Rock., Put., and Westchester; no Sunday hunting EXCEPT in Dela., Orange, Rock., and Sull.; 2 per day, 8 per season. NOTE — In counties where both sexes may be taken, the limit is 2 pheasants per day, 8 per season in the aggregate — regardless of sex.

COTTONTAIL RABBITS — Oct. 26-Feb. 29; 6 per day and no season limit EXCEPT 4 per day in Clint., Essex, Frank., Fulton, Ham., Herk., Jeff., Lewis, Mont., Oneida, Oswego, St. Law., Saratoga, Warren, Wash., Alleg., Catt., Chau., Steuben and Yates.

RACCOON (Hunting) — Oct. 26-Feb. 29; no limits.

HUNGARIAN PARTRIDGE — Oct. 26-Nov. 14 — only in the four counties of Clinton, Franklin, Jeff. and St. Law. No Sunday hunting.

QUAIL — Nov. 1-15 only in Putnam and Westchester; 4 per day, 10 per season.

Mrs. VanWagenen Had Net Score 72

The name of Mrs. Walter S. (Sally) Van Wagenen of Woodstock Country Club was inadvertently omitted from Wednesday's compilation of scores in the Babe Didrikson Cancer Memorial golf tournament.

Mrs. Van Wagenen, wife of the Woodstock school principal, had a gross score of 59-53-112 and 40 handicap for a net 72 which tied her for 9th place in the net division with Mrs. Kermit Schwarz of the same club.

Tribe, Dodgers Win Ulster Sets

Ulster Business Men's Indians clobbered the Braves, 29 to 7, and Van's Auto Dodgers won a 6-5 squeaker over the Kiwanis Yankees in the Town of Ulster Little League.

Charlie Lay limited the Braves to four hits, while the Indians collected 22 off Bob Kent and Jack Sleight, including a grand slammer by Barry Fraser in the second inning, when the Indians tallied 13 runs. They picked up 12 in the first frame.

Fraser went "4 for 4" with a single, 2 doubles and homer, while Bill Palen also starred on two doubles, a single and a home run in five times at bat. Charlie Lay, who struck out 9, stroked three singles in his own behalf and Dave Lowe also hit three singles. Lou Perry and Dean Short each hit a double and single and Bob Elliott doubled.

Koyan Top Hitter

Richie Koyan's three singles came in a futile cause, as the Dodgers nipped the Yankees, although outhit 4-6. John Fatum had two singles for the winners and John Thompson doubled. Thompson and Scott Miller combined for the win.

Fight of the Century?

Moore Kayoes Durelle; Offers Ingie Million

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

MONTREAL (AP)—Old Archie Moore, still supreme king of the lightheavyweights, today made a million-dollar pitch to Ingemar Johansson for a heavyweight title fight.

Only minutes after he bombed out Canada's Yvon Durelle with a four-knockdown explosion at 2:52 of the third round Wednesday night, the middle-aged magician of the ring announced the million-dollar bid to Sweden's world heavyweight champion.

"Ingemar and I would make a very, very interesting fight," said Archie. "There are some Canadian and United States people interested in putting on the fight of the century."

His manager Jack (Doc) Kearns said the million smackers would be strictly Johnsson's cut.

Lost Two Tries

In the 42-year-old camp's two attempts to win the heavyweight crown, he was beaten by Rocky Marciano (1955) and Floyd Patterson (1956).

Since then he has won 17 straight.

The 174¼-pound champion hurt his 173-pound, 29-year-old rival with a left hook in the first round Wednesday night and boxed rings around him. In the second he let Yvon punch himself out against his blocking forearms, and in the third he went to work in earnest.

A barrage climaxed by a chopping right felled Durelle the first time for 9. Another volley and a right and left to the choppers sent the stricken challenger over the lowest rope strand for 9 again. Another flashing bombardment tipped Yvon to the deck for 7.

The inevitable final came when a right knocked the Canadian on his pants. He rolled on his side as Referee Jack Sharkey, the former heavyweight champion, tolled the full 10 count.

Fights Last Night

Montreal — Archie Moore, 174, San Diego, Calif. knocked out Yvon Durelle, 173, Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., 3 (Moore retained world light heavyweight championship).

Mayor's Marauders Nip Police in Benefit, 10-8

Barrage of Doubles Highlights Contest

Nearly four hundred fans sat through a merry-go-round of fun and frolic and some surprisingly good softball, as Mayor Ed Radel's Marauders nipped the Kingston Patrolmen's Association, 10 to 8, in a softball game last night at Dietz Stadium.

The big blow was a six-run barrage in the fifth inning when the Marauders exploded for six runs. At the time they were trailing, 5-3, then they picked up an insurance marker in the sixth.

Each side had a home run, as Charlie McCullough belted one for the Police and Frank Koenig, the mayor's secretary, hit one for his boss' team.

Joey Amato and Tom Carpino toiled through the long evening as rival pitchers. Amato gave up 11 police hits, while the Marauders picked up 10 blows off the slants of Carpino.

Doubles Galore

There were two base hits galore as Bill Slover, Ernie Bartroff, Meyer Levy, Jim Amato, Bill Davis, Jack Gilligan, Dick Wood and Jack Houghtaling got into the doubles act.

Five of the stalwarts collected two hits—including Dick Wood, and A. J. Murphy of the Marauders; and Bill Slover, John Crespini, the Mgr. and Ernie Bartroff for the Police.

A tidy sum was realized for the athletic fund of the K.P.A. and a good time was had by all.

Graham's New Strategy Is Individual Subs

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Head Coach Otto Graham has discarded the unit substitution strategy and will insert his All Star collegians on an individual basis against the Baltimore Colts Friday night.

The National Football League champion Colts are 16-point favorites to gain the 16th pro victory against eight collegiate triumphs in the series. Two of the games were tied.

Soldier Field is the setting for the summer football classic and upward of 75,000 fans are expected. It will be telecast and broadcast by ABC starting at 8:30 p.m. EST.

Graham put the final polish on his squad under the Soldier Field lights Wednesday night. The Colts arrive today and also will have a private practice at night in the huge lakefront arena.

Graham's new substitution tactics are a reversal of the unit system he used last year in the All Star's 35-19 record offensive display against the Detroit Lions. Observers say his decision to spell offensive and defensive players frequently, until all able bodied men on his squad of 49 have had a turn, indicates his manpower is not as deep as last year.

The starting quarterback spot is unsettled, Graham saying that all four of his candidates are good and leave little leeway to base a choice.

The quartet includes Lee Grosscup of Utah, Buddy Humphrey of Baylor, Bob Newman of Washington State and Bob Ptacek of Michigan. Tulane's Dick Petitbon is also a fine offensive threat but will be used only on defense.

There is little question but that the All Stars will fill the air with passes with such fine receivers as Buddy Dial of Rice, Rich Kreitling of Illinois, Dave Sherer of Southern Methodist and Boyd Dowler of Colorado as targets.

Wightman Cuppers Nearing Top Form

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Despite a late start in practice, Janet Hopps of the U.S. Wightman Cup team believes her squad will be in top shape for the weekend tournament against the British tennis stars.

"Our girls will reach a peak by the end of the week," Miss Hopps said.

Bob Lasher Is Choice Against Eddie Feigner

Bob Lasher, who has hurled Gallo's to first place in the Kingston Rec Softball League, will match his serves against the King and His Court Friday night at Dietz Stadium in a tremendous softball attraction. Lasher will play with Joe Amato's All-Stars in the 9:15 o'clock contest. Preceding the feature game, will be a girls' softball tilt, starting 8 p. m.

Backing up Lasher will be a hard hitting lineup composed of Bob Slover at first, Paul Giannuzzzi at second, Bob Perry at shortstop and Roy Cassella at third. The picket line will have Bill Slover in left field, John Crespino in center and Joe Amato Jr. in right. Phil DeCicco will handle Lasher's serves. On the bench ready for action will be Tom Carlino, Joe Amato Sr., Bill Sinsabough, Red Amato, Frank Koenig, Bill Martini and Mike Amato.

There is no doubt as to the starting lineup for the hearalded visitors. The amazing Eddie Feigner will pitch with Meade Kinzer his batterymate. The rest of the club is first baseman Jerry Jones and shortstop Mike Meilicke.

Feigner brings many brilliant pages of pitching history to Kingston. He is no stranger here and fans who have seen the King and his Court before almost always come back for seconds. Feigner is almost the whole show. He not only pitches with his eyes open, but can also throw the ball by a batter while pitching blindfold.

This marks the fourteenth consecutive season the club his been touring around the country and world. Last year the club won 113 and lost 16 and has an overall record of 1260 games won, 126 lost and 16 tied.

Jaycee Baseball Features, Aug. 19

The Jaycee Little League will present a special attraction at 6 p. m. Wednesday, Aug. 19, at their field in upper Forsyth Park.

Featured will be a game between the Junior All Stars (8 and 9 year olds) of the Jaycee Little League against the Jaycee Minor League All Stars.

The Jaycee minor league was organized this year so that many of the boys in the uptown area who wanted to play ball could be aborbed by the Jaycee-sponsored program which now consists of two leagues and a total enrollment of 150 boys.

The public is invited. Refreshments will be available at the field.

Lake Katrine Club Slates Field Day

Members of the Lake Katrine Rod and Gun Club will hold their annual field day and turkey shoot on Sunday, Sept. 27, at the club preserve, off Route 213, St. Remy. Peter Lemister Jr., is in charge of arrangements.

Committees include Sonny Barnes, Ed Cogswell and Em Mayes, archery; Chet Joy, skeet and trap field; Frank Hornbeck, ammunition; William Bruck, Charles Benson and Peter Lemister Sr., refreshments.

This year's shoot will again feature the ever popular flying pheasant along with other shot gun novelties and a running deer for high powered rifle shooters. There will be events for everyone and an attendance award will be made.

Joseph Duncan was appointed to make plans for the erection of an open air pavilion on the club's creek front at the Lake Katrine clubhouse.

Chester Joy gave a detailed report on his progress on stream improvement. The club also went on record as favoring an open season on hen pheasants. This matter will be forwarded to the Ulster County Federation.

2nd Half Playoff In National LL

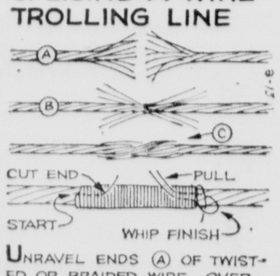

The playoff for the second half title, and possibly the championship of the 1959 National Little League is scheduled his evening at 5:45 p. m. between the Canfield Tigers and Shults Paint Indians.

Tigers won the first half and can cinch the title outright by defeating the Indians today. Tigers won the first half with an 8-0 record. An Indian victory will set up a playoff for the seasonal title.

Gentlemen:

In accordance with the policy of the Colonial Advertising Agency, I wish to place our stamp of approval for the new quick, effective method you employed in replacing our worn out noisy muffler. And, at such a reasonable price with a guarantee for the life of the car.

Then too, I will no longer have to worry about getting a ticket from the police and paying up to $50 fine, now that N. Y. State has a new Anti Noise Muffler Law in effect.

Thanks again to Mufflers Inc. It's a pleasure to do business with you.

Shoemaker Unaware Of 3500th Victory

CHICAGO (AP)—"I don't keep track of such things," said jockey Willie Shoemaker after entering the winner's circle for the 3,500th time.

A week before his 28th birthday, Shoemaker Wednesday became one of a select group of jockeys who have booted home 3,500 or more winners.

He had been riding the last three days in Arlington Park with a foot injury suffered in the starting gate last Saturday. He was blanked Monday, won Tuesday's opener but missed the rest of the afternoon.

The Shoe, who won his first race at Golden Gate Fields in California on April 20, 1949, reached 3,500 in Wednesday's second race with Mad Duchess.

Defense Keeps Chisox Ahead; Mathews Braves' Bright Spot

Only Early Wynn Of the Big Five Is Delivering

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

At the start of the year the Chicago White Sox were given an outside chance at the pennant because of only one thing — their strong pitching staff.

Today the first-place White Sox are a solid favorite to represent the American League in the World Series—despite their pitching.

Only Early Wynn of the highly touted Big Five — Billy Pierce, Dick Donovan, Ray Moore, Barry Latman and Wynn — has been pitching as advertised. He has a 15-7 record.

Pierce is 12-12. Donovan, plagued by arm miseries is 7-5 and hasn't pitched since July 21. Moore is 2-6 and Latman 5-4.

What's keeping them up there, then? The answer lies in their speed, their defense, their ability to win the close games—and their bullpen aces Gerry Staley and Turk Lown.

Staley and Lown figured prominently in Wednesday's 11-6 triumph over Detroit which kept the Sox 2½ games ahead of Cleveland, a 9-5 winner over Kansas City. Boston defeated Baltimore 5-4 and Washington nipped New York 3-2.

Latman started for the White Sox but left under fire in the fourth when Detroit scored four times to overcome a 3-0 Chicago lead. Staley halted the Tigers and picked up his fifth relief victory when the White Sox scored eight runs in the fifth and sixth on only three hits. Sherm Lollar's three-run homer was the big blow. Lown pitched the last three innings.

Gary Bell went the route for Cleveland with an eight - hitter for his 13th triumph. The Indians whacked five Kansas City pitchers for 15 hits, including home runs by Minnie Minoso, Jim Baxes and Russ Nixon.

The Senators, who had won only one of their last 23 games, snapped the Yankees' six-game winning streak although they made only four hits. One of them was a home run by pinch hitter Julio Becquer. It came with two on in the eighth to overcome a 2-0 Yankee lead. Ryne Duren, in relief of Art Ditmar, threw the home run ball.

A ninth-inning home run by Gary Geiger broke a 4-4 tie and gave Ike DeLock and the Red Sox their uphill victory.

Team's Slugger Already Passes His 1958 Marks

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Milwaukee's Braves may not be the all-conquering champions they were a year ago but it hasn't been the fault of third baseman Eddie Mathews.

He is hitting an even .300, has slugged 33 home runs and has driven in 79 runs. He already has exceeded last year's totals of 31 homers and 77 runs batted in when his average was only .251.

Eddie powered two home runs Wednesday night, each with a man on base, to boost the Braves into second place with a 6-4 victory over Cincinnati. Henry Aaron added a home run, his 30th, and a triple and Joe Adcock hit safely in his 19th consecutive game. The Braves also got a fine pitching performance from veteran Bob Rush, who hurled scoreless ball after relieving southpaw Juan Pizarro in the second.

Chicago's Cubs dropped Los Angeles into third place, half a game behind the Braves and 3½ behind the idle San Francisco Giants, by thrashing the Dodgers 11-8. Pittsburgh walloped Philadelphia 6-2.

The Cubs routed Don Drysdale with a five-run outburst in the first inning, highlighted by Ernie Banks' 34th home run and Sammy Taylor's ninth. Alvin Dark and Irv Noren also chipped in with four-baggers for the Cubs in the 28-hit slugfest.

Roberto Clemente had a single, double and triple, his three-bagger coming with the bases loaded in a four-run seventh that enabled the Pirates to break a 2-2 tie with the Phils. Harvey Haddix outpitched Robin Roberts.

Better Offense Bears' Big Need

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

RENNSELAER, Ind. (AP) —In top shape defensively, the Chicago Bears must shoot for offensive improvement this National Football League season.

The Bears last year finished in a Western Division tie for second with the Los Angeles Rams at 8-4.

But, he added, the Bears also need all the breaks they can get in a 1959 schedule which pits them twice against the NFL champion Baltimore Colts and the Rams within their first six games.

Halas has high hopes that fullback Rick Casares and halfback Willie Galimore, the crux of the Bear running game last season, will be bolstered by a couple of rookies.

They are 235-pound fullback Johnny Adams from Los Angeles State and Pete Johnson, a fleet 200-pound halfback from Virginia Military Institute. Another offensive threat is improved Johnny Morris, third in Bear rushing in 1958.

Halas also emphasizes that what he calls the Bears' "P.O.M." — players out — offensive setup will be much stronger with a corps of fine receivers.

He is high on an array of such offensive ends as veterans Harlon Hill, Bill McColl, Jim Dooley and Bob Jewitt, and rookies Willard Dewveall of Southern Methodist, John Avent of Indiana, Tony Carcaterra of Elon College in North Carolina, and Bob Coronado of College of the Pacific.

"We also have three fine quarterbacks in Ed Brown, Zeke Bratkowski and Rudy Bukich," said Halas.

Terwilliger Happy With New Found Wallop

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "I guess I'm shooting a little over my head at bat, but I might as well enjoy it," says little Wayne Terwilliger.

In 30 days, "Twig" has advanced from a substitute to a star of the Kansas City Athletics.

The 34-year-old second baseman contributed virtually nothing to the A's this season until July 14, when he got into the lineup because of injuries to Jerry Lumpe and then Joe Demaestri.

Twig was batting .195 when he got his chance to start. Since then, he has hit safely in 18 of 23 games and his average has soared to .302.

Wednesday night, Terwilliger collected two of the A's eight hits as the team bowed 9-4 to Cleveland.

There's no arguing the fact that Terwilliger is hitting over his head. In 11 seasons of professional baseball, he has hit better than .300 only once, and that was in the minors seven years ago.

But his value to the team lies in defensive ability and speed, two elements always in short supply at Kansas City.

Rosburg, Middlecoff Top Motor City Pack

DETROIT (AP) — Defending champion Bob Rosburg and Cary Middlecoff, twice a winner, paced a field of 154 today into the first round of the $25,000 Motor City Open Golf Tournament at nearby Meadowbrook Country Club.

They face strong contention from Dow Finsterwald, last week's winner of the Cleveland Open; Art Wall, top money winner for 1959, and Billy Casper, National Open champion.

Others like Arnold Palmer, Julius Boros, Tommy Bolt, Pete Cooper and Jerry Barber are capable of walking off with the $3,500 in first prize money when the 72-hole tournament concludes Sunday.

Dodgers Edge UL Giants, 7-6

John Thompson choked off a last inning threat by the Langer Pharmacy Giants just in time to give the Van's Auto Dodgers a 7-6 squeaker victory in the Town of Ulster Little League.

Thompson was pitching in relief of John Eccleston, the Dodger starter. Eric Borst and Paul Koeppen pitched for the losers.

Three Giants — Stan Van Kleeck, Eric Borst and Paul Koeppen—had two singles each, as did John Fatum of the Dodgers. Ralph McCumber, Scott Mellert, Eccleston and Jeff Perry hit doubles.

Have No Trouble

CHICAGO (AP) — Two Negro families moved into a three-story apartment building in a previously all-white neighborhood Wednesday. Police patrolled the area and no incidents were reported.

The apartment building at 4338 W. Jackson Blvd., on the West Side, had been the target of demonstrations last week.

'Murphy The Great' In Big League Debut

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"Murphy the Great" will be on the mound when the Kansas City Athletics meet the Chicago White Sox Saturday night.

Murphy — it's Harry Murphy Jr. — is 10 years old and has quite a reputation in his hometown of Ottawa, Kan., as a pitcher.

Young Harry will toss out the first ball for the A's.

Murphy pitched his Peewee League team to the championship this season. The team had a 7-0 record, and Murphy pitched every game, including three no-hitters. He struck out 90 batters in 35 innings. Peewee League games last five innings.

Driver Friend Is Held for Forging $1,500 in Loans

For years, Emanuel Fortune, 50, drove his pal, John Mackie, 50, to and from the Nassau County disposal plant where both were employed.

Mackie confided to his friend that he had only one problem in his life.

He had taken out a $100 loan from the state retirement fund six years ago, agreeing to repay the loan and interest out of paycheck deductions. He hadn't exactly kept track but it just seemed that the deductions went on forever. Fortune was sympathetic.

Mackie finally told other friends and they advised him to go to the police. He did.

They have arrested Fortune on a second degree forgery charge. They accused him of taking out $1,500 in loans since 1953 in Mackie's name.

Mackie was paying them off out of his payroll deductions. Now he is looking for somebody else to ride with to and from his job.

Veto Chou Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed invitation to Red China Premier Chou En-lei to visit the United States has been vetoed by President Eisenhower, says Rep. Charles O. Porter (D-Ore). Porter, prompted by the coming visit of Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev, had suggested a similar exchange of visits between Chou and the President.

Guard Is Given to 4 Negroes

Parade Broken Up By Clubs, Hoses

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Four Negro children headed back to school with their white classmates today with police standing by to crush any further mass protests from segregationists.

Officers used clubs and fire hoses to break up a parade of some 200 men, women and children near Central High when integrated classes opened at two schools Wednesday, but peace was apparently in sight today.

The paraders, coming from a rally at the state capitol where Gov. Orval E. Faubus addressed them, shouted "Cowards!" at the policemen. Twenty-three of them were arrested.

Normal in Classes

In the schools themselves, officials said everything was normal.

One segregationist said he knew of no plans for any rallies today. He is the Rev. Wesley Pruden, past president of the Capital Citizens Council, which spearheads segregation forces here.

Other segregation leaders could not be contacted.

Remains at Mansion

Faubus, who advised the rally to avoid violence, remained at his mansion. He said he would keep in touch with his "people" for developments.

Two Negroes went to Central Wednesday, but only one will go back today, said Mrs. L. C. Bates, president of the Arkansas branch of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

She said Elizabeth Eckford went the first day of school only to consult with her counselor. Elizabeth, one of nine Negroes enrolled at Central in 1957, has gained enough credits through correspondence to enter college.

That leaves Jefferson Thomas, 16, another veteran of 1957, as the only Negro at Central. He is a senior.

Girls Return to School

At Hall High School located in the fashionable Pulaski Heights area, three Negro girls returned to classes today. They are Effie Jones, 17, and Estelle Thompson and Elsie Robinson, both 16.

The four Negroes enrolled at Central and Hall were among 60 who applied to attend. The others were referred to all-Negro Horace Mann High by the School Board, which used a state pupil - placement law.

Integration first began at Central in September 1957. Gov. Faubus surrounded the school with National Guardsmen to keep the Negroes out that year, but the Guard was federalized and removed. Then mobs formed at the school and paratroopers were sent in to restore order.

Faubus closed the schools last fall to stop integration. The law he used to do so has been declared unconstitutional by a federal court.

Thruway Troopers Nab Speeder Twice

Angelo Sonnesso, of 176 East 123rd Street, New York City, was traveling south on the Thruway north of Catskill when his fast moving 1958 car was spotted by Trooper Richard Nemschick.

The trooper took off in pursuit and for 19 miles he chased Sonnesso's automobile but was unable to overtake it until two trucks, one passing the other, forced the New Yorker to slow down near Saugerties. He was stopped and summoned to appear before Justice of the Peace Millard Davis.

State Police said Sonnesso pleaded guilty to driving 100 miles an hour, and he was fined $100.

Sonnesso then took off again and headed south and again he was pursued and over taken, this time by Trooper Roy Tollison, who accused the motorist of driving 90 miles an hour. The time that elapsed between payment of the $100 fine and the issuance of the second summons was 10 minutes, troopers said.

Sonnesso was arraigned before Justice of the Peace I. C. Barnes, New Paltz. He pleaded guilty to a speeding charge and was fined $10.

Explosion Is Thought To Be From Planes

RANDOLPH, Mass. (AP)—The predawn stillness of Randolph was shattered today by three explosion-like sounds and a fire alarm.

Hundreds of persons gathered in the business district where fire fighting equipment pulled up.

But everything was in order. Later, police explained that a patrolman heard the three explosion sounds and at the same time saw what appeared to be smoke coming from one of the stores. He pulled the fire alarm.

The explosions, however, were probably jet planes breaking the sound barrier and what appeared to be smoke was fumes from the store's air-conditioning equipment.

CSE Banquet Sept. 26

Ulster County Chapter, Civil Service Employes Association will hold its annual banquet at The Barn, Route 28 Sept. 26, it was announced today. Dancing, modern and square, will follow a dinner served at 7 p. m. Music will be by the Floyd Barringer orchestra. Tickets may be obtained by contacting Leon Studt, 59 South Manor Avenue, telephone FE 1-9125.

MRS. ALFORD TALKS TO PICKETS—Mrs. Dale Alford, wife of a segregationist Democratic congressman from Arkansas, talks to pickets protesting school desegregation at Little Rock, Ark. Race Association Asks Legislators Let Saratoga Be

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP) — About 200 legislators, their wives, and county political chairmen were back home today after a day at the races and a big dose of "Don't-sabotage-Saratoga" talk.

"I beg you to leave us alone," John W. Hanes, president of the New York Racing Assn., told the lawmakers before the races Wednesday.

He was referring to Saratoga's protected racing dates — the reason why the legislators were invited to the historic track to watch the horses free of charge and listen to some lobbying.

By state law, Saratoga is the only flat track allowed to operate during the month of August. Tracks in the New York City area complain that their expensive plants must remain idle during the height of the tourist and vacation season.

As the guests assembled at the National Museum of Racing before a tour of the Saratoga plant and the races, Howell E. Jackson, a trustee of the Racing Assn., said:

"I would like to caution the Upstate public that you must never permit this law to be repealed."

He said repeal was tried "in a sort of cloak-and-dagger way" at the last session of the Legislature, but "when disclosed, was met with quick and sudden death."

The guests watched Mrs. E. Barry Ryan's Middle Brother, with Bob Ussery up, capture the first running of the $28,650 Bernard Baruch Stakes. The win also established a track record of 1:49 for 1-18 miles.

Weighted at 113, Middle Brother whipped Howard B. Keck's Bagdad, high-weighted at 123, by a neck and earned a purse of $18,322.

Middle Brother paid $4.70.

In today's feature, the $10,000-added North American Steeplechase Handicap, R. D. Rouses' Gokey was the early favorite. Gokey, an easy winner over the course last week, again will have Joe Aitcheson up. The horse will carry 143 pounds. Top-weighted is Narcissus 2nd, making her first start since last November. Duc de Richmond is another strong contender in the small field.

The 54th running of the event will be about two miles.

Civil War Vet Dying

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) —The last veteran of the Civil War, Walter Williams, 116 hovered near death today. A physician said he could live "only a matter of days."

Confirms Report Of Saugerties C-H Office Probe

District Attorney Raymond J. Mino today confirmed a report that his office is conducting an investigation of an alleged shortage in the Saugerties office of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation.

"My office is conducting an investigation at this time," Mino said. Asked if any arrests had been made, the district attorney replied in the negative.

Meanwhile, it is understood from a reliable source that an audit of the books at the Saugerties office is still being conducted. The district attorney also stated that statements are being taken by his office in connection with the investigation.

Earlier this month, a spokesman for the Central Hudson told The Freeman that an investigation of alleged discrepancies at the Saugerties office was being conducted.

There was no available information as to the amount of the discrepancies, although it was unofficially reported to be possibly as high as $15,000.

An Ethiopian dollar (or thaler), which used to be par with the United States dollar now brings only 40 cents.

Stanley Is Held For Grand Jury In Station Theft

Jay W. Stanley, 19, of Route 1, Box 384-A, Kingston, arrested Tuesday on a third degree burglary charge for the alleged theft of some $400 in cash and checks from an Albany Avenue gas station, waived examination in city court today and was held for the grand jury.

The arrest followed an investigation by detectives Charles McCullough and Leonard Ellsworth, who were assisted in the arrest by Cpl. Edward Shannon and Trooper Charles Teelon of the state police.

Detective McCullough reported finding an automatic pistol of foreign make, "believed to be Japanese," in a car driven by Stanley.

Irving Ruger, operator of the gas station, said entrance was gained through the breaking of a rear window. The place was not ransacked, he noted, and said it appeared as though the person who took the money knew of the "concealed place" in which it was hidden. An estimated $140 of the sum, was in checks.

Attorney Richard Griggs appeared for Stanley before Judge Aaron E. Klein today.

A jury trial was due to start today for Camburn L. Mumford, 51, of Oak Street, Forest Glen Park, who was booked in early June on a charge of driving while intoxicated. Attorney Charles J. Saccoman appeared for the defendant and Joseph Torroco for the district attorney's office.

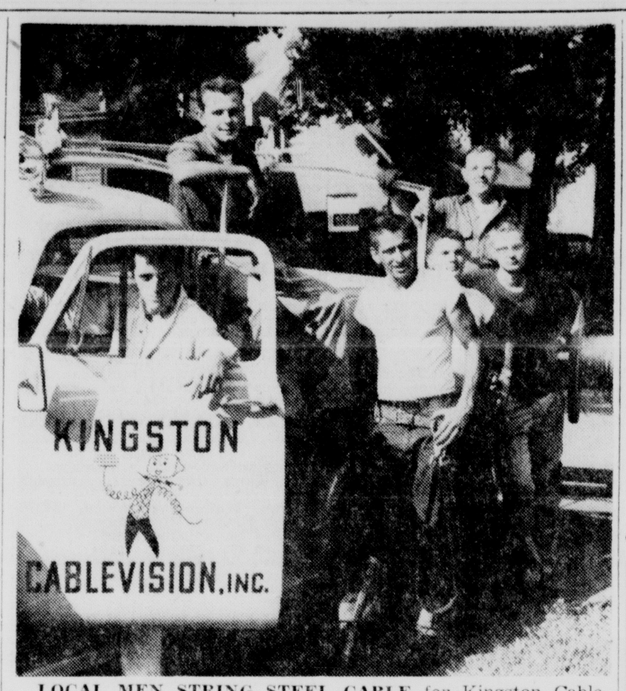

Booked Friends' Bets

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Joseph Anton Kaleel has been cleared of bookmaking charges because he only took bets from friends.

Several witnesses told U.S. Judge David W. Ling they made bets with Kaleel on just a friendly basis, not as professional bookmaker and customer.

Kaleel was charged with avoiding the federal use tax for bookmakers. Patrick Coleman, assistant U.S. Atty., said Kaleel handled $50,000 a month in bets.

Falling Tree Limb Injures Boy's Face

Eric Katz, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Katz, of 762 East 48th Street, Brooklyn, was injured Wednesday when a falling limb of a tree hit his face as he stood in front of a bungalow at Margo Manor, RD 2, Pine Bush, state police reported.

The boy was treated by a physician and later removed to Horton Memorial Hospital, Middletown, where X-rays were taken. The boy later was released from the hospital.

State Police Corporal N. G. Lecakes, of Ellenville, said the boy and his parents were vacationng at the manor at the time of the accident.

Turnau Lists Schedule Change

Because of a death in the family of Ray duVoll, prominent baritone of The Turnau Opera Players company, a change in schedule has been announced by the Woodstock group.

"Abduction From The Seraglio" replaces 'La Boheme'" originally scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 18. "La Boheme" will be heard on Aug. 29, instead.
